

Common Core Aligned Comprehension Assessment

All Are Welcome
CCSS Assessment

Name: _____

Score: / 9

Directions:

Use what you know about All Are Welcome to answer each of the following questions.

1. Where does this story mostly take place?

- A At a school in the city
- B At a school in the country
- C At a home school
- D None of the above

2. What message did the author want to share in the book All Are Welcome?

- A Everyone is welcome in her home.
- B Everyone can live in our country.
- C Everyone should feel safe and accepted.
- D Everyone can make music and art whenever they want.

3. What do the characters in the story do at lunch?

- A They make fun of each other's food.
- B They share different kinds of bread.
- C They have a food fight.
- D They all buy their lunch.

4. Why did the author repeat the words "all are welcome here" throughout the book?

- A To make the book fun to read
- B To make her message stand out
- C She couldn't think of a better way to say it.
- D She was writing a poem.

CCSS Assessment

Common Core Assessment:
One question for each Reading
Informational OR Reading Literature
standard (1-9)

5. What did you learn about the characters at the beginning and the end of this story? (RL.2.5)

- A The characters were afraid to go to school.
- B The characters liked their bus driver.
- C The characters wanted everyone to feel welcome.
- D The characters liked to have recess.

6. What would one of the characters in the book do if they saw someone being bullied? (RL.2.6)

- A They would get a teacher to help.
- B They would try to stop the bully.
- C They would be kind to the kid being bullied.
- D All of the above.

7. Why did the illustrator use such bright colors to make the pictures in All Are Welcome? (RL.2.7)

- A To show that the kids are happy
- B Because she likes bright colors
- C To grab the reader's attention
- D Because kids like bright colors

8. Which of the following is not a message of this story? (RL.2.9)

- A People should respect one another.
- B People should do good things for their community.
- C People should not share their talents with others.
- D People should not make fun of others.

9. What genre is All Are Welcome? (RL.2.10)

- A Biography
- B Mystery
- C Realistic Fiction
- D Science Fiction

Answer Key

