

Common Core Aligned Comprehension Assessment

Are You A Snail? CCSS Assessment

Name: _____

Score: / 9

Directions:

Use what you know about Are You A Snail? to answer each of the following questions.

1. What is this book about?

- A The book is about snails and slugs.
- B Children like snails.
- C The book tells all about snails.
- D Foxes are dangerous.

2. Which of these is NOT an important detail about snails from the book?

- A Snails grow.
- B Snails have two horns, eyes on stalks, and are slimy.
- C Thrushes and foxes are dangerous to snails.
- D Snails sleep through the cold winter.

3. What caused the author to warn snails to hide during the daytime?

- A It is too sunny.
- B Kids are out in the daytime and might pick snails up.
- C Foxes eat during the daytime.
- D Thrushes eat snails, and they are awake during the daytime.

4. What is a "stalk" when we use it to talk about snails? Use the illustrations to help you.

- A stem
- B a long, thin part of their body
- C to sneak up on someone
- D a corn plant

CCSS Assessment

Common Core Assessment:
One question for each Reading
Informational OR Reading Literature
standard (1-9)

5. What did the author explain at the end of the book? (RI.1.5)

- A the life-cycle of a snail
- B how human children and snails are very different
- C how to keep snails out of your garden
- D the difference between snails and slugs

6. What does the illustration of the snail's eyes help you understand? (RI.1.7)

- A how snails can pull their eyes into their heads if they need to
- B how cute their eyes are
- C what their horns look like
- D how snails move

7. Why does the author ask YOU if you are a snail? (RI.1.8)

- A The author thinks you might be a snail.
- B The author is trying to be funny.
- C Snails and humans are alike.
- D It makes you imagine what it would be like to be a snail.

8. How are snails and slugs similar? (RI.1.9)

- A Slugs are snails who lost their shells.
- B They both have beautiful shells on their backs.
- C They both have one foot and are slimy.
- D They are not the same in any way.

9. What was the author hoping you might do when reading Are You A Snail? (RI.1.10)

- A Enjoy a silly story about snails.
- B Decide whether snails should be saved or not.
- C Learn facts about snails in an entertaining way.
- D Explain how you can be just like a snail.

Answer Key

