

Common Core Aligned Comprehension Assessment

Caps for Sale
CCSS Assessment

Name: _____
Score: / 9

Directions:

Use what you know about Caps for Sale to answer each of the following questions.

1. Which of these is important to understanding how the peddler solved his problem?

- A His caps were 50 cents.
- B Monkeys imitate what they see.
- C The peddler took a long nap.
- D The peddler sold different colored caps.

2. What lesson did the peddler learn (the main message)?

- A Monkeys are always taking things.
- B Red caps are the best, and he should sell them for $1.00.
- C He should sell something else, not just caps.
- D Finding a different way to explain something may help you solve a problem.

3. How did the peddler first respond to the monkeys taking his caps?

- A He shook his finger at them and told them to give the caps back.
- B He shook the tree hoping the caps would fall.
- C He stomped his feet and told them to give the caps back.
- D He laughed at how cute they looked.

4. Which of these is an example of repetition from Caps for Sale?

- A when the peddler falls asleep under the tree
- B when no one wanted to buy a cap
- C how the monkeys respond to the peddler
- D when the peddler began to feel hungry

CCSS Assessment

Common Core Assessment:
One question for each Reading
Informational OR Reading Literature
standard (1-9)

Caps for Sale
CCSS Assessment Answer Key

Directions:

Use what you know about Caps for Sale to answer each of the following questions.

1. Which of these is important to understanding how the peddler solved his problem? (RL.2.1)

- A His caps were 50 cents.
- B Monkeys imitate what they see.
- C The peddler took a long nap.
- D The peddler sold different colored caps.

2. What lesson did the peddler learn (the main message)? (RL.2.2)

- A Monkeys are always taking things.
- B Red caps are the best, and he should sell them for $1.00.
- C He should sell something else, not just caps.
- D Finding a different way to explain something may help you solve a problem.

3. How did the peddler first respond to the monkeys taking his caps? (RL.2.3)

- A He shook his finger at them and told them to give the caps back.
- B He shook the tree hoping the caps would fall.
- C He stomped his feet and told them to give the caps back.
- D He laughed at how cute they looked.

4. Which of these is an example of repetition from Caps for Sale? (RL.2.4)

- A when the peddler falls asleep under the tree
- B when no one wanted to buy a cap
- C how the monkeys respond to the peddler yelling at them
- D when the peddler began to feel hungry

Answer Key

