Common Core Aligned Comprehension Assessment

Diary of a Worm CCSS Assessment Score: /9 Directions: Use what you know about Diary of a Worm to answer each of the following questions. 1. Which of these is not a key detail to understanding the events in Worm's diary?			Name:
Disections: Worm and his family five understanding the events in Worm's diary? Worm and his family five understanding the events in Worm's diary? Worm and his family five understanding the events in Worm's diary? Worms and his family five understanding the events in Worm's diary? Worms and his family five understanding the events in Worm's diary? A His fife is like out fives. Individual in the property of the family respond to the stat of fishing season? Worms can be Secret Service agents. Worms can be Secret Service agents. Worms can be Secret Service agents. They word fishing. They word fishing. They word fishing. They word fishing. They word to diary deeper understand. They had to diary deeper understand. They had to diary deeper understand. What other word could be used instead of the word "sooked" in the diary entry from April 10? A dry defenched They had to diary deeper understand. What is one reason you might agree with Worm's idea that it is not always easy being small? (I.2.3) What is one reason you might agree with Worm's idea that it is not always easy being small? (I.2.3) Word can you learn about Worm by toking at the end of his diary? (III.2.3) Word can you learn about Worm by toking at the end of his diary? (III.2.3) Word can you learn about Worm by toking at the end of his diary? (III.2.7) Word can you learn about Worm by looking at the end of his diary? (III.2.7) Word can you learn about Worm by looking at the end of his diary? (III.2.7) Worms and the diary had been and the diary. Worms and on the diary, how are worms different than spiders? (III.2.7) Worms and on the diary, how are worms different than spiders? (III.2.7) Worms and on the very large and express his feelings. He won't because he deem't like witting.				Name:_	/0
Usewhard you know about Blary of a Warm to answer each of the following questions. Nikhol of flees is agd a key defail to understanding the events in Worm's diary? Worm and his family live underground. Worm and his family live underground. Worm sould help to bot all the ants. Worm and his family live underground. Worm sould help to bot all the ants. Worm and his family live underground. Worm sould help to bot all the ants. Worm and his family live underground. Worm sould help to bot all the ants. Worm sould help to bot all the ants. Worm sould help to bot and his help ying to show us through his diary? His life is like our livesfamily, friends, school, and homework! Worms can be Secret Service agents. Worms can be Secret Service agents. Worm sould be prefect if he could just chew gum. Help word to be prefect if he could just chew gum. Help word hopsocotch. They had to dig deeperunderground. What other word could be used instead of the word "sooked" in the diary entry from April 107 Arrow technic word in the diary entry from April 107 Arrow technic word in the beginning and the end of his diary? (RL 2.5) He dees not dike being a worm. He tecaseshis older sister. What an one reason you might agree with Worm's idea that it is not always easy being small? (RL 2.6) Your techner vanils you to do homework. Hopsocotche k dangerous. Your grandpa will try to feach you good manners. People dan't notice you or forget you are there. What can you learn about Worm by looking at the illustrations and reading his diary? (RL 2.7) Worms and the does not have any friends. He word to the dist. Worms and the dist. Worms and the help to bot Under. Bead on the diary, worm words different than spiders? (RL 2.7) Worms and on the district of help to t	CCSS AS	sessment		score.	17	_
Worm has a family live underground. Worm and his family live underground. Worm sold helia to at the ants. Worm sold have a problem to solve, so what is he hying to show us through his diary? Worms can be Service agents. Worms can be Service Service agents. Worm sold be perfect if he could just chew yum. S. How does the family respond to the stat of fishing season? What only have the sold give permanents of the season? What a digner of the service of the season? What a digner of the service of the season? S. What do we learn about Worm at the beginning and the end of his diary? (RL2.5) He season thinks about his Morn's advice. He goes to school. He does not like being a worm. S. What is one reason you might agree with Worm's idea that it is not always easy being small? (RL2.3) Your fracher wants you to do homework. Hoppsech his diangerous. Worms and you worm about worm by looking at the illustrations and reading his diary? (RL2.2) What can you learn about worm by looking at the illustrations and reading his diary? (RL2.2) Worms can not not see if the silke a human child. All he does the work upside down, but spiders don't. Worms can not not be possible to worms different than spiders? (RL2.2) Worms can not not up out of the dist. Worms can not not up out of the dist. Worms can not not up out of the dist. Worms can not not up out of the dist. Worms can not not up out of the dist. Worms can not not up out of the dist. Worms can not not up out of the dist. Worms can not not up out of the dist. Worms can not not up out of the dist. Worms can not not up out			of a Worm to answer e	ach of the fo	llowing questions.
Worm and his family live underground. Worms and helia to all the ants. Worms and helia to all the ants. Worms have a problem to solve, so what is he hying to show us through his diany? Worms are better than spiders. Worms can be seered service agents. His file would be perfect if he could just a chew gum. New does the family respond to the start of fishing season? They played hopscotch. They played hopscotch. They played hopscotch. What other word could be used instead of the word "soaked" in the diary entry from April 10? Agy drenched Swhat do we learn about Worm at the beginning and the end of his diary? (RL2.5) He tesses his doller sider. What other word could be used instead of the word "soaked" in the diary entry from April 10? What other word could be used instead of the word "soaked" in the diary entry from April 10? What do we learn about Worm at the beginning and the end of his diary? (RL2.5) He tesses his doller sider. What can not thinks about his Mom's advice. He does not like being a worm. What can be reason you might agree with Worm's idea that it is not always easy being small? (RL2.3) Your fraccher wants you to do homework. Hopscotchis dangerous. Your grandpa will try to fooch you good manners. People don't notice you or forget you are there. 7. What can you learn about Worm by tooking at the illustrations and reading his diary? (RL2.2) All he does not have any friends. He seems like he is like a human child. All he does he had be a buttarfity. 8. Board on the diary, how are worms different than spiders? (RL2.2) Worms and not have legs, but spiders have many. Only worms can come up out of the dirt. Worms and not have legs, but spiders have many. Only worms can come up out of the dirt. Worms and not have legs, but spiders have many. Worms do not have legs, but spiders have many. Worms and one thave legs, but spiders have many. He won't because he doesn't like writing.	1. Which	-
Worms said held to all the ants. ① Worms have an important job on Earth. ② Worm doesn't have a problem to solve, so what is he hying to show us through his diary? ② His life is like our livesfamily, friends, school, and homeworld ③ Worms can be Secret's Service agents. ③ Worms can be Secret's Service agents. ③ His life would be perfect if he could just chew gum. 3. How does the family respond to the start of fishing season? ② They played hopsoroth. ③ They had to dig deeper underground. ⑤ Interesting 5. What other word could be used instead of the word "socked" in the diary entry from April 10? ② dry ② drenched ⑤ hat ⑥ It the goes to school. ⑥ He doesnot like being a worm. 4. What is one recons you might agree with Worm's advice. ⑤ Hopsocrothis dangerous. ⑥ Your grandpa will fly to teachyou good manners. ⑥ People don't notice you or forget you are there. 7. What can you learn about Worm by looking at the illustrations and reading his diary? (RL.2.9) ⑥ He doesnot have any friends. ⑥ He would rather be a butterfly. 8. Based on the diary, how are worms different flow spiders? (RL.2.9) ⑥ Worms like to walk upside down, but spiders don't. ⑥ Worms like to walk upside down, but spiders thave many. ⑥ Only worms can come up out of the dirt. 9. Why will Worm most likely continue to write in his diary? (RL.2.10) It is a good way for him to recoord his life and express his feelings. ⑥ He won't because he doesn't like wrifting.	\bigotimes	Worm has a family ar	nd friends.			Comn
Worms and reach to a the ards. Worms have an import and job on Earth. Informatio Worms have an import and job on Earth. Informatio Information Informat	\odot					One que
2. Worm doesn't have a problem to solve, so what is he tying to show us through his diary? A His if is like our livesCarmly, friends, school, and homeworld Worms are better than spiders. Worms can be Secret Service agents. His life would be perfect if he could just chew gum. 3. How does the family respond to the start of fishing season? They want fahing. They played hopscotch. They had to dig deeper underground.	9					- I
Worms are better than spiders. Worms can be Secret Service agents. Worms can be Secret Service agents. This life would be perfect if he could just chew gum. 3. How does the family respond to the start of fishing season? They prove the fishing. They played hopscotch. They had to dig deeper underground. They had they deep store they had t	(1)	Worms have an impo	rtantjob on Earth.			i i i i i i i i i i i i i i i i i i i
Worms are better than spiders. Worms can be Secret Service agents. He ille would be perfect if he could just chew gurn. How does the family respond to the start of fishing season? They went fishing. They played hopscotch. They had to dig deeperunderground. They hid underneath some mushrooms. What other word could be used instead of the word "soaked" in the diary entry from April 10? A dry A drenched Shot They had to dig deeperunderground. They hid underneath some mushrooms. What is not easy to make the beginning and the end of his diary? (RL2.5) He listens to and thinks about his Morn's advice. He goes to school. Your grandpa will they to teach you good manners. People dan't notice you or forget you are there. They had can you learn about Worm by looking at the illustrations and reading his diary? (RL2.7) He does not have any friends. He seems like he is like a human child. At he does not have any friends. He seems like he is like a human child. At he does not have any friends. He seems like he is like a human child. At he does not have any friends. He seems like he is like a human child. At he does not have any friends. He seems like he is like a human child. At he does not have any friends. He seems like he is like a human child. At he does not have any friends. Worms do not have legs, but spiders have many. Or low yourns can come up out of the cit. Worms can run fast, just like spiders. Worms can run fast, just like spiders. Worms can run fast, just like spiders. His morn told him he has to keep writing. His morn told him he has to keep writing.	2. Worm	doesn't have a proble	m to solve, so what is he	e trying to sh	ow us through his diary?
Worms can be Secret Service agents. (b) His life would be perfect if he could just chew gum. 3. How does the family respond to the start of fishing season? (c) They went fishing. (d) They had not odig deeper underground. (e) They hid underneath some mushrooms. 4. What other word could be used instead of the word "soaked" in the diary entry from April 10? (e) dry (f) dienched (f) hot (g) freezing 5. What do we learn about Worm at the beginning and the end of his diary? (RL 2.5) (h) He isters to and thinks about his Morn's advice. (g) He goes to school. (g) He does not like being a worm. 6. What is one reason you might agree with Worm's idea that it is not always easy being small? (RL 2.5) (h) Your feacher wants you to do homework. (g) Hoppostothis dangerous. (g) Your grandpa will try to teach you good manners. (g) People don't notice you or forget you are there. 7. What can you learn about Worm by looking at the illustrations and reading his diary? (RL 2.7) (g) He does not have any friends. (g) He seems like he is like a human child. (g) All he does is make turnnels. (g) He would rather be a butterfly. (g) Bussed on the diary, how are worms different than spiders? (RL 2.7) (g) Only worms can runn fast, just like spiders. (g) Worms and not have legs, but spiders have manny. (g) Only worms can come up out of the dirt. (g) Why will Worm most likely confinue to writing. (g) He won't because he doesn't like writing.	\bigcirc	His life is like our lives
3. How does the family respond to the start of fishing season? ② They went fishing. ③ They played hopscofch. ② They had to dig deeper underground. ③ They had to dig deeper underground. ③ They had to dig deeper underground. ③ They had to did deeper underground. ④ They had undermeat his some mushrooms. 4. What other word could be used instead of the word "soaked" in the diary entry from April 10? ② dry ③ drenched ③ hot ⑤ treezing 5. What do we learn about Worm at the beginning and the end of his diary? (RL.2.5) He teases his older sister. ⑥ He does not like being a worm. 6. What is none reason you might agree with Worm's idea that it is not always easy being small? (RL.2.6) ② Your grandpa will try to feach you good manners. ⑥ People don't notice you or forget you are there. 7. What can you learn about Worm by looking at the fillustrations and reading his diary? (RL.2.7) ② He does not have any friends. ⑥ He would rather be a butterfly. 8. Based on the diary, how are worms different than spiders? (RL.2.9) ② Worms like to walk upside down, but spiders don't. ③ Worms can run fast, just like spiders. ⑥ Worms can run fast, just like spiders. ⑥ Worms can run fast, just like spiders. ⑥ Worms and not have legs, but spiders have many. ⑥ Only worms can come up out of the dist. 9. Why will Worm most likely continue to write in his diary? (RL2.10) ﴿ It is a good way for him to record his life and express his feelings. ﴾ His morm told him he has to keep writing. ⑤ He won't because he doesn't like writing.	⅌	Worms are better than spiders.
3. How does the family respond to the start of fishing season? (A) They went fishing. (B) They played hopsoctch. (C) They had to dig deeper underground. (D) They hid undermeath some mustrooms. 4. What other word could be used instead of the word "soaked" in the diary entry from April 10? (A) dry (B) drenched (C) that the possion of the start of the diary entry from April 10? (C) the goos to school. (D) He does not like being a worm. 6. What is one reason your might agree with Worm's idea that it is not always easy being small? (RL2.4) (A) Your teacher wants you to do homework. (B) Hopsoctch is dangerous. (C) Your grandpa will try to feach you good manners. (E) People don't notice you or forget you are there. 7. What can you learn about Worm by tooking at the illustrations and reading his diary? (RL2.2) (B) He does not have any friends. (B) He seems like he is like a human child. (C) All he does is make tunnels. (D) He would rather be a butterfly. 8. Based on the diary, how are worms different than spiders? (RL2.9) (A) Worms like to wolk upside down, but spiders don't. (D) Worms can run fast, just like spiders. (D) Worms can run fast, just like spiders. (D) Worms can run fast, just like spiders. (D) Worms can run fast, just like spiders have marry. (D) Only worms can come up out of the dirt. (P) Why will Worm most likely continue to write in his diary? (RL2.10) (E) His a good way for him to record his life and express his feelings. (E) His mom told him he has to keep writing.	ၜ
They went fishing. They played hopsoctch. They had to dig deeper underground. They hid undermeath some mushrooms. What other word could be used instead of the word "soaked" in the diary entry from April 10? They hid undermeath some mushrooms. What other word could be used instead of the word "soaked" in the diary entry from April 10? They hid undermeath some mushrooms. S. What do we learn about Worm at the beginning and the end of his diary? (RL2.5) He teases his older sister. He goes to school. He teases his older sister. What is one reason you might agree with Worm's idea that it is not always easy being small? (RL2.6) Your teacher wants you to do homework. Hopscotch is dangerous. Your grandpa will try to feach you good manners. People don't notice you or forget you are there. What can you learn about Worm by looking at the illustrations and reading his diary? (RL2.7) He does not have any friends. He seems like he is like a human child. All he does is make tunnels. He would rather be a butterfly. 8. Based on the diary, how are worms different than spiders? (RL2.9) Worms like to walk upside down, but spiders don't. Worms can rom un fast, just like spiders. Worms like spiders. Only worms can come up out of the dirt. Why will Worm most likely continue to write in his diary? (RL2.10) It is a good way for him to record his life and express his feelings. His mom told him he has to keep writing. His mom told him he has to keep writing.	(1)	His life would be perfe	ct if he could just chew	v gum.
They played hopscotch. They had to dig deeper underground. They hid underneath some mushrooms. 4. What other word could be used instead of the word "soaked" in the diary entry from April 10? Any Treezing 5. What do we learn about Worm at the beginning and the end of his diary? (RL2.5) They had the freezing 6. What do we learn about Worm at the beginning and the end of his diary? (RL2.5) The freezing 7. What do we learn about Worm at the beginning and the end of his diary? (RL2.5) The freezing He listens to and thinks about his Mom's advice. The goes to school. They had the fit is not always easy being small? (RL2.6) They are accompany out might agree with Worm's idea that it is not always easy being small? (RL2.6) They are accompany out to do homework. They are accompany of the fit is not always easy being small? (RL2.7) They had can you learn about Worm by looking at the illustrations and reading his diary? (RL2.7) They had a not have any friends. The seems like he is like a human child. The would rather be a butterfly. The would rather be a butterfly. The word is not a we worms different than spiders? (RL2.9) The worms and not have legs, but spiders have many. They worms do not have legs, but spiders have many. They worms can run fast, just like spiders have many. They will worm most likely continue to write in his diary? (RL2.10) This a good way for him to record his life and express his feelings. The world because he doesn't like writing.	3. How d	oes the family respond	I to the start of fishing se	eason?
They had to dig deeper underground. They hid underneath some mushrooms. 4. What other word could be used instead of the word "soaked" in the diary entry from April 10? And dry And drenched So that Teezing 5. What do we learn about Worm at the beginning and the end of his diary? (RL.2.5) He listens to and thinks about his Mom's advice. Be the teaseshis older sister. CCSS Assessme 6. What is one reasons you might agree with Worm's idea that it is not always easy being small? (RL.2.6) A Your teacher wants you to do homework. Beople don't notice you or forget you are there. 7. What can you learn about Worm by looking at the illustrations and reading his diary? (RL.2.7) And be does not have any friends. He seems like he is like a human child. All he does is make tunnels. Beople don't notice you or forget you are there. 7. What can you learn about Worm by looking at the illustrations and reading his diary? (RL.2.7) And the does is make tunnels. Beople don't notice you or forget you are there. 7. What can you learn about Worm by looking at the illustrations and reading his diary? (RL.2.7) And the does is make tunnels. Beople don't notice you or forget you are there. 7. What can you learn about Worm by looking at the illustrations and reading his diary? (RL.2.7) And the does is make tunnels. Beople don't notice you or forget you are there. 7. What can you learn about Worm by looking at the illustrations and reading his diary? (RL.2.9) And worms like to walk upside down, but spiders don't. Beople don't notice you or forget you are there. 7. Why will Worm most likely continue to write in his diary? (RL.2.10) It is a good way for him to record his life and express his feelings. Beople don't because he doesn't like writing. Che won't because he doesn't like writing.	\simeq
4. What other word could be used instead of the word "soaked" in the diary entry from April 10? (a) dry drenched (b) hot (c) treezing 5. What do we learn about Worm at the beginning and the end of his diary? (RL.2.5) (e) He listens to and thinks about his Mom's advice. (g) He does not like being a worm. (g) He does not like being a worm. (g) What is one reason you might agree with Worm's idea that it is not always easy being small? (RL.2.6) (g) Your feacher wants you to do homework. (g) Hopscotch is dangerous. (g) Your grandpa will try to teach you good manners. (g) People don't notice you or forget you are there. 7. What can you learn about Worm by looking at the illustrations and reading his diary? (RL.2.7) (g) He does not have any friends. (g) He would rather be a buttertly. (g) He would rather be a buttertly. (g) Worms like 10 walk upside down, but spiders don't. (g) Worms like 10 walk upside down, but spiders have many. (g) Only worms can come up out of the dirt. (g) Why will Worm most likely continue to write in his diary? (RL.2.10) (g) His a good way for him to record his life and express his feelings. (g) He won't because he doesn't like writing.	\simeq
4. What other word could be used instead of the word "soaked" in the diary entry from April 10? (a) dry (b) dry (c) hot (c) hot (d) freezing 5. What do we learn about Worm at the beginning and the end of his diary? (RL.2.5) (e) He listens to and thinks about his Mom's advice. (e) He goes to school. (for the does not like being a worm. (for the does not like a human side at the it is not always easy being small? (RL.2.7) (for the does not have arry friends. (for the does not have arry friends. (for the does not have a human child. (fo	\simeq dry drenched hot hot freezing 5. What do we learn about Worm at the beginning and the end of his diary? (RL.2.5) He listens to and thinks about his Mom's advice. He leases his older sister. He goes to school. He does not like being a worm. 4. What is one reason you might agree with Worm's idea that it is not always easy being small? (RL.2.6) Your teacher wants you to do homework. Hopscotch is dangerous. Your grandpa will try to teach you good manners. People don't notice you or forget you are there. 7. What can you learn about Worm by looking at the illustrations and reading his diary? (RL.2.7) He does not have any friends. He seems like he is like a human child. All he does is make tunnels. He would rather be a butterfly. 8. Based on the diary, how are worms different than spiders? (RL.2.9) Worms like to walk upside down, but spiders don't. Worms like to walk upside down, but spiders don't. Worms an ont have legs, but spiders have many. Only worms can come up out of the dirt. Worms an onthave legs, but spiders have many. If is a good way for him to record his life and express his feelings. His mom told him he has to keep writting. He won't because he doesn't like writing.	(b)	They hid underneaths	ome mushrooms.
S. What do we learn about Worm at the beginning and the end of his diary? (RL.2.5)	4. What o	other word could be us	ed instead of the word	"soaked" in t	he diary entry from April 10?
5. What do we learn about Worm at the beginning and the end of his diary? (RL.2.5) He listens to and thinks about his Mom's advice. By He listens to and thinks about his Mom's advice. He goes to school. What is one reason you might agree with Worm's idea that it is not always easy being small? (RL.2.6) Your teacher wants you to do homework. He psecotch is dangerous. Your grandpa will try to teach you good manners. People don't notice you or forget you are there. 7. What can you learn about Worm by looking at the illustrations and reading his diary? (RL.2.7) He does not have any friends. He seems like he is like a human child. All he does is make tunnels. He would rather be a butterfly. 8. Based on the diary, how are worms different than spiders? (RL.2.9) Worms like to walk upside down, but spiders don't. Worms do not have legs, but spiders have many. Only worms can rome up out of the dirt. Worms do not have legs, but spiders have many. To not you worms can come up out of the dirt. Worms do not have legs, but spiders have many. He won't because he doesn't like writing.	A	dry freezing 5. What do we learn about Worm at the beginning and the end of his diary? (R.L.2.5) He listens to and thinks about his Morn's advice. 8 He teaseshis older sister. C He goes to school. D He does not like being a worm. 6. What is one reason you might agree with Worm's idea that it is not always easy being small? (R.L.2.5) Your teacher wants you to do homework. B Hopscotch is dangerous. Your grandpa will try to teach you good manners. People don't notice you or forget you are there. 7. What can you learn about Worm by looking at the illustrations and reading his diary? (R.L.2.7) He does not have any friends. He seems like he is like a human child. All he does is make tunnels. D He would rather be a butterfly. 8. Based on the diary, how are worms different than spiders? (R.L.2.9) Worms like to walk upside down, but spiders don't. Worms an run fast, just like spiders. Worms an run fast, just like spiders. Only worms can come up out of the dirt. 9. Why will Worm most likely continue to write in his diary? (R.L.2.10) It is a good way for him to record his life and express his feelings. B His mom told him he has to keep writing. C He won't because he doesn't like writing.	ⅎ	drenched
He listens to and thinks about his Mom's advice. (a) He teaseshis older sister. (b) He goes to school. (c) He does not like being a worm. (b) What is one reason you might agree with Worm's idea that it is not always easy being small? (RL.2.6) (c) A) Your teacher wants you to do homework. (d) Hopscotch's dangerous. (e) Your grandpa will try to teach you good manners. (e) People don't notice you or forget you are there. 7. What can you learn about Worm by looking at the illustrations and reading his diary? (RL.2.7) (f) He does not have any friends. (g) He seems like he is like a human child. (g) All he does is make tunnels. (g) He would rather be a butterfly. 8. Based on the diary, how are worms different than spiders? (RL.2.9) (g) Worms like to walk upside down, but spiders don't. (g) Worms on not have legs, but spiders have many. (g) Only worms can come up out of the dirt. 9. Why will Worm most likely confinue to write in his diary? (RL.2.10) (g) It is a good way for him to record his life and express his feelings. (g) He won't because he doesn't like writing.	(i)	hot	5. What do we learn	about Worm	at the beginning and the e	nd of his diary? (RL.2.5)
CCSS Assessme He goes to school. He does not like being a worm. 6. What is one reason you might agree with Worm's idea that it is not always easy being small? (RL.2.6) A Your teacher wants you to do homework. Hopscotch is dangerous. Your grandpa will try to teach you good manners. People don't notice you or forget you are there. 7. What can you learn about Worm by looking at the illustrations and reading his diary? (RL.2.7) He does not have any friends. He seems like he is like a human child. All he does is make tunnels. He would rather be a butterfly. 8. Based on the diary, how are worms different than spiders? (RL.2.9) Worms like to walk upside down, but spiders don't. Worms can run fast, just like spiders. Worms do not have legs, but spiders have many. Only worms can come up out of the dirt. 9. Why will Worm most likely confinue to write in his diary? (RL.2.10) It is a good way for him to record his life and express his feelings. His mom told him he has to keep writing.	(b)	freezing	He listens t	to and thinks	about his Mom's advice.
He does not like being a worm. 6. What is one reason you might agree with Worm's idea that it is not always easy being small? (RL.2.6) A your teacher wants you to do homework. B Hopscotch is dangerous. C Your grandpa will try to teach you good manners. People don't notice you or forget you are there. 7. What can you learn about Worm by looking at the illustrations and reading his diary? (RL.2.7) He does not have any friends. He seems like he is like a human child. All he does is make tunnels. He would rather be a butterfly. 8. Based on the diary, how are worms different than spiders? (RL.2.9) Worms like to walk upside down, but spiders don't. Worms like to walk upside down, but spiders don't. Worms on on thave legs, but spiders have many. D Only worms can come up out of the dirt. 9. Why will Worm most likely continue to write in his diary? (RL.2.10) It is a good way for him to record his life and express his feelings. B His mom told him he has to keep writing. C He won't because he doesn't like writing.			B He teases	his older siste	er.
6. What is one reason you might agree with Worm's idea that it is not always easy being small? (RL.2.6) A Your teacher wants you to do homework. B Hopscotch is dangerous. C Your grandpa will try to teach you good manners. People don't notice you or forget you are there. 7. What can you learn about Worm by looking at the illustrations and reading his diary? (RL.2.7) A He does not have any friends. He seems like he is like a human child. C All he does is make tunnels. D He would rather be a butterfly. 8. Based on the diary, how are worms different than spiders? (RL.2.9) A Worms like to walk upside down, but spiders don't. B Worms can run fast, just like spiders. Worms do not have legs, but spiders have many. D Only worms can come up out of the dirt. 9. Why will Worm most likely continue to write in his diary? (RL.2.10) It is a good way for him to record his life and express his feelings. B His mom told him he has to keep writing. C He won't because he doesn't like writing.		CCSS Assessme	C He goes to	o school.
small? (RL.2.6) A Your teacher wants you to do homework. B Hopscotch is dangerous. C Your grandpa will try to teach you good manners. People don't notice you or forget you are there. 7. What can you learn about Worm by looking at the illustrations and reading his diary? (RL.2.7) A He does not have any friends. He seems like he is like a human child. C All he does is make tunnels. D He would rather be a butterfly. 8. Based on the diary, how are worms different than spiders? (RL.2.9) A Worms like to walk upside down, but spiders don't. B Worms can run fast, just like spiders. Worms do not have legs, but spiders have many. D Only worms can come up out of the dirt. 9. Why will Worm most likely continue to write in his diary? (RL.2.10) It is a good way for him to record his life and express his feelings. B His mom told him he has to keep writing.			D He does no	ot like being	a worm.
B Hopscotch is dangerous. Your grandpa will try to teach you good manners. People don't notice you or forget you are there. 7. What can you learn about Worm by looking at the illustrations and reading his diary? (R.L.2.7) He does not have any friends. He seems like he is like a human child. All he does is make tunnels. He would rather be a butterfly. 8. Based on the diary, how are worms different than spiders? (RL.2.9) Morms like to walk upside down, but spiders don't. Worms can run fast, just like spiders. Worms do not have legs, but spiders have many. Only worms can come up out of the dirt. 9. Why will Worm most likely continue to write in his diary? (RL.2.10) It is a good way for him to record his life and express his feelings. B His mom told him he has to keep writing. C He won't because he doesn't like writing.				on you might	agree with Worm's idea that	it is not always easy being
People don't notice you or forget you are there. 7. What can you learn about Worm by looking at the illustrations and reading his diary? (RL.2.7) A He does not have any friends. He seems like he is like a human child. All he does is make tunnels. He would rather be a butterfly. 8. Based on the diary, how are worms different than spiders? (RL.2.9) A Worms like to walk upside down, but spiders don't. B Worms can run fast, just like spiders. Worms do not have legs, but spiders have many. D Only worms can come up out of the dirt. 9. Why will Worm most likely continue to write in his diary? (RL.2.10) It is a good way for him to record his life and express his feelings. B His mom told him he has to keep writing. C He won't because he doesn't like writing.		Your teacher wants you to do homework.
People don't notice you or forget you are there. 7. What can you learn about Worm by looking at the illustrations and reading his diary? (RL.2.7) A He does not have any friends. He seems like he is like a human child. C All he does is make tunnels. D He would rather be a butterfly. 8. Based on the diary, how are worms different than spiders? (RL.2.9) A Worms like to walk upside down, but spiders don't. B Worms can run fast, just like spiders. Worms do not have legs, but spiders have many. D Only worms can come up out of the dirt. 9. Why will Worm most likely continue to write in his diary? (RL.2.10) It is a good way for him to record his life and express his feelings. B His mom told him he has to keep writing. C He won't because he doesn't like writing.			B Hopscoto	ch is dangero	US.
7. What can you learn about Worm by looking at the illustrations and reading his diary? (RL.2.7) A He does not have any friends. He seems like he is like a human child. C All he does is make tunnels. D He would rather be a butterfly. 8. Based on the diary, how are worms different than spiders? (RL.2.9) Worms like to walk upside down, but spiders don't. B Worms can run fast, just like spiders. Worms do not have legs, but spiders have many. D Only worms can come up out of the dirt. 9. Why will Worm most likely continue to write in his diary? (RL.2.10) It is a good way for him to record his life and express his feelings. B His mom told him he has to keep writing. C He won't because he doesn't like writing.			(C) Your gran	ndpa will try t	o teach you good manners.
(RL.2.7) A He does not have any friends. He seems like he is like a human child. C All he does is make tunnels. D He would rather be a butterfly. 8. Based on the diary, how are worms different than spiders? (RL.2.9) A Worms like to walk upside down, but spiders don't. B Worms can run fast, just like spiders. Worms do not have legs, but spiders have many. D Only worms can come up out of the dirt. 9. Why will Worm most likely continue to write in his diary? (RL.2.10) It is a good way for him to record his life and express his feelings. B His mom told him he has to keep writing. C He won't because he doesn't like writing.			People do	on't notice y	ou or forget you are there.
He seems like he is like a human child. C All he does is make tunnels. D He would rather be a butterfly. 8. Based on the diary, how are worms different than spiders? (RL.2.9) A Worms like to walk upside down, but spiders don't. B Worms can run fast, just like spiders. Worms do not have legs, but spiders have many. D Only worms can come up out of the dirt. 9. Why will Worm most likely continue to write in his diary? (RL.2.10) It is a good way for him to record his life and express his feelings. B His mom told him he has to keep writing. C He won't because he doesn't like writing.
All he does is make tunnels. D He would rather be a butterfly. 8. Based on the diary, how are worms different than spiders? (RL.2.9) A Worms like to walk upside down, but spiders don't. B Worms can run fast, just like spiders. Worms do not have legs, but spiders have many. D Only worms can come up out of the dirt. 9. Why will Worm most likely continue to write in his diary? (RL.2.10) It is a good way for him to record his life and express his feelings. B His mom told him he has to keep writing. C He won't because he doesn't like writing.			A He does no	ot have any	friends.
B. Based on the diary, how are worms different than spiders? (RL.2.9) A Worms like to walk upside down, but spiders don't. B Worms can run fast, just like spiders. Worms do not have legs, but spiders have many. Only worms can come up out of the dirt. 9. Why will Worm most likely continue to write in his diary? (RL.2.10) It is a good way for him to record his life and express his feelings. B His mom told him he has to keep writing. C He won't because he doesn't like writing.			He seems l	like he is like	a human child.
8. Based on the diary, how are worms different than spiders? (RL.2.9) A Worms like to walk upside down, but spiders don't. B Worms can run fast, just like spiders. Worms do not have legs, but spiders have many. D Only worms can come up out of the dirt. 9. Why will Worm most likely continue to write in his diary? (RL.2.10) It is a good way for him to record his life and express his feelings. B His mom told him he has to keep writing. C He won't because he doesn't like writing.			C All he doe	s is make tun	nels.
A Worms like to walk upside down, but spiders don't. B Worms can run fast, just like spiders. Worms do not have legs, but spiders have many. D Only worms can come up out of the dirt. 9. Why will Worm most likely continue to write in his diary? (RL.2.10) It is a good way for him to record his life and express his feelings. B His mom told him he has to keep writing. C He won't because he doesn't like writing.			D He would	rather be a b	outterfly.
B Worms can run fast, just like spiders. Worms do not have legs, but spiders have many. D Only worms can come up out of the dirt. 9. Why will Worm most likely continue to write in his diary? (RL.2.10) It is a good way for him to record his life and express his feelings. B His mom told him he has to keep writing. C He won't because he doesn't like writing.			8. Based on the diar	ry, how are w	orms different than spiders?	(RL.2.9)
Worms do not have legs, but spiders have many. D Only worms can come up out of the dirt. 9. Why will Worm most likely continue to write in his diary? (RL.2.10) It is a good way for him to record his life and express his feelings. B His mom told him he has to keep writing. C He won't because he doesn't like writing.			(A) Worms like	to walk upsi	de down, but spiders don't.
Only worms can come up out of the dirt. 9. Why will Worm most likely continue to write in his diary? (RL.2.10) It is a good way for him to record his life and express his feelings. B His mom told him he has to keep writing. C He won't because he doesn't like writing.			B Worms car	ın run fast, jus	t like spiders.
9. Why will Worm most likely continue to write in his diary? (RL.2.10) It is a good way for him to record his life and express his feelings. B His mom told him he has to keep writing. C He won't because he doesn't like writing.
It is a good way for him to record his life and express his feelings. B His mom told him he has to keep writing. C He won't because he doesn't like writing.			Only worm	ns can come	up out of the dirt.
B His mom told him he has to keep writing. C He won't because he doesn't like writing.			9. Why will Worm mo	ost likely con	tinue to write in his diary? (R	L.2.10)
He won't because he doesn't like writing.			It is a good	d way for him	to record his life and expres	ss his feelings.
			B His mom to	old him he ho	as to keep writing.
(D) He gets tired of digging.			C He won't k	because he	doesn't like writing.
			D He gets tire	ed of digging	l.

Common Core Assessment: One question for each Reading Informational OR Reading Literature standard (1-9)

Answer Key