

Common Core Aligned Comprehension Assessment

Frog and Toad Are Friends CCSS Assessment

Name: _____

Score: / 9

Directions:

Use what you know about Frog and Toad Are Friends to answer each of the following questions.

1. Which of these details is important to understanding Chapter 1, "Spring"?

- A Frog wanted to keep sleeping.
- B It was April.
- C Toad wanted to keep sleeping.
- D The calendar said November.

2. How was Toad's problem solved in Chapter 2, "The Button"?

- A The sparrow found Toad's button.
- B He finally found his button on his floor at home.
- C He used a new button to mend his jacket.
- D Toad bought a new jacket.

3. In Chapter 5, "The Letter," Frog gave the letter to a snail to deliver. What effect did this have on Frog and Toad?

- A The letter never made it to Toad.
- B The letter was muddy and Toad couldn't read it.
- C The letter arrived before Frog returned to Toad's house.
- D Frog finally had to tell Toad about the letter.

4. In Chapter 4, "A Swim," Toad says, "I am catching a cold." In this sentence, what does the word cold mean?

- A slim, thin
- B can, stand
- C dancing, waltzing
- D dance, prance

CCSS Assessment

Common Core Assessment:
One question for each Reading
Informational OR Reading Literature
standard (1-9)

5. What happens at the end of Chapter 4, "A Swim"? (RL.2.5)

- A Frog makes all the other animals leave.
- B All the animals turn their backs when Toad gets out of the water.
- C Toad stays in the water until everyone leaves.
- D Toad picks up his clothes and goes home.

6. What kind of voice would you use to read Toad's words in Chapter 1, "Spring"? (RL.2.6)

- A I would use a tired, sleepy voice.
- B I would use a loud, angry voice.
- C I would use a sad, crying voice.
- D I would use an excited, happy voice.

7. How do the illustrations show the change of events in Chapter 3, "The Story"? (RL.2.7)

- A At the beginning of the chapter, Toad is in bed, not feeling well. At the end, Frog is in bed.
- B At the beginning of the chapter, Frog is wearing a bathing suit. At the end, Toad is wearing a bathing suit.
- C At the beginning of the chapter, Frog is in bed not feeling well. At the end, Toad is in bed.
- D At the beginning of the chapter, Toad's jacket is missing a button. At the end, his jacket has many buttons sewed on it.

8. Which sentence best shows the contrast between the characters of Frog and Toad? (RL.2.9)

- A Toad is always happy, while Frog is mostly sad.
- B Frog never does anything nice for Toad, while Toad is always helping Frog.
- C Frog likes to sleep all the time, while Toad likes to have adventures.
- D Frog is usually more positive and happy, while Toad is sometimes sad or angry.

9. How is this book different from other chapter books you've read? (RL.2.10)

- A Each chapter has different main characters.
- B Each chapter is a separate story with a different plot.
- C The book has one plot from beginning to end.
- D The characters grow apart from each other over time.

CCSS Assessment 2nd Grade Reading Standards for Literature | BookPagez.com

Answer Key

