1	Brian Robeson stared out the window of the small plane at the endless green northern wilderness below. It was a small plane, a Cessna 406– a bush plane– and the engine was so loud, so roaring and consuming and loud, that it ruined any chance for conversation. Not that he had much to say. He was thirteen and the only passenger on the plane was a pilot named– what was it? Jim or Jake or something– who was in his mid-forties and who had been silent as he worked to prepare for take-off. In fact since Brian had come to the
