9	Lilly's parents were more than a bit doubtful about leaving the two of them alone together. Lilly tried to frighten Julius with her nifty disguises. She learned magic and tried to make him disappear. When that didn't work, she simply pretended that he didn't exist.
10	Lilly spent more time than usual in the uncooperative chair.
11	Lilly's parents showered her with hugs and kisses and treats of all shapes and sizes. They even let her stay up fifteen minutes later every night. It didn't matter. Nothing worked. "I am the queen," said Lilly. "And I hate Julius."
12	But her parents loved him.
