

Common Core Aligned Comprehension Assessment

Little Bear's Visit
CCSS Assessment

Name: _____

Score: / 9

Directions:

Use what you know about Little Bear's Visit to answer each of the following questions.

1. What is Little Bear NOT supposed to do at his grandparents' house?

- A He is not supposed to make Grandfather tired.
- B He is not supposed to eat too many sweets.
- C He is not supposed to bother Grandmother while she is cooking.
- D He is supposed to play quietly by himself.

2. What is the main message of Little Bear's Visit?

- A Grandmothers tell the best stories.
- B Grandfathers never get tired.
- C Spending time with your grandparents is wonderful!
- D Little Bear ate too much and made his grandparents tired.

3. How does Little Bear respond when Grandfather falls asleep?

- A He gets angry, and pokes Grandfather until he wakes up.
- B He is sad at first, but goes to find Grandmother.
- C Little Bear is tired too, so he falls asleep next to him.
- D He thinks Grandfather is joking, and yells for him to wake up.

4. Little Bear ate a lot at his grandparents' house. Which of the things he ate is an example of alliteration?

- A bread and jam
- B milk and honey
- C "I'm not eating too much"
- D cake and cookies

CCSS Assessment

Common Core Assessment:
One question for each Reading
Informational OR Reading Literature
standard (1-9)

5. What does Little Bear do at the end, even though he says he won't? (RL.2.5)

- A He gets tired and falls asleep.
- B He eats more of Grandmother's treats.
- C He makes Grandfather very tired.
- D He breaks the toy goblin in the jar.

6. How is Little Bear the same as his mother when she was a little bear? (RL.2.6)

- A They both liked to go fishing.
- B He is very calm, but she was not.
- C They are both kind and caring.
- D Neither of them like birds.

7. What do the illustrations tell you about the setting and time period of the story? (RL.2.7)

- A This story happens in the future.
- B The illustrations show these are real bears that live in the wild.
- C Their clothes show that the story happened a long time ago.
- D The illustrations show that this story could happen now, in modern times.

8. How are the stories that Grandfather and Grandmother tell different? (RL.2.9)

- A They are both about Little Bear's mother when she was little.
- B Grandmother's story really happened, but Grandfather's is a make-believe one.
- C Grandmother's is scary, but Grandfather's story is funny.
- D They both tell really good stories.

9. What will most likely happen the next time Little Bear visits? (RL.2.10)

- A He will run off and get his grandparents worried.
- B He will watch TV the whole time.
- C He will want to go home right away.
- D He will eat, play, and listen to stories.

Answer Key

