

Common Core Aligned Comprehension Assessment

Nate the Great
CCSS Assessment

Name: _____

Score: / 9

Directions:

Use what you know about Nate the Great to answer each of the following questions.

1. Which of these details is important to Nate solving the mystery?

- A Nate really loves pancakes.
- B Annie has a dog named Fang.
- C All Annie's paintings are yellow.
- D Rosamond has 4 cats.

2. Why does Annie call Nate to come over to her house?

- A She has lost a picture, and Nate is a detective.
- B She has made too many pancakes, and needs help eating them.
- C They have plans to do some painting.
- D He is going to help babysit her brother Harry.

3. How does Nate respond after finding out that Fang did not bury the picture?

- A He gives up and goes back home.
- B He takes a pancake break to keep up his strength.
- C He tells Annie just to paint a new picture.
- D He figures out that Fang must have eaten the picture.

4. Which of these is an example of rhyme found in the story?

- A Super Hex, Big Hex, Little Hex, Plain Hex
- B Nate the Great
- C Red and yellow mixed
- D "Me paint," he said. "

CCSS Assessment

Common Core Assessment:
One question for each Reading
Informational OR Reading Literature
standard (1-9)

5. When does Nate begin to solve the problem? (RL.2.5)

- A He solves the problem when Annie reminds him of how colors mix.
- B He figures it out after he becomes friends with Fang.
- C Nate solves the problem when he meets Harry and sees his red paint.
- D He doesn't solve the problem; he just eats a lot of pancakes.

6. How are Annie and Rosamond alike? (RL.2.6)

- A They both like pancakes and cats.
- B They both have brothers named Harry.
- C They only like dogs.
- D They both want to be detectives.

7. How do the illustrations help the reader solve the mystery along with Nate? (RL.2.7)

- A We can see the lost picture the whole time.
- B They show us where Fang buried the picture.
- C They show us how many pancakes Nate actually ate.
- D We are able to see any clues that Nate sees.

8. How are Annie's lost picture of Fang and Harry's picture of the monster different? (RL.2.9)

- A Annie's picture is yellow, and Harry's is bright red.
- B Annie's picture of Fang has 1 head, but Harry's monster has 3 heads.
- C Annie's picture does not look like Fang, but Harry's looks just like him.
- D They are both done in orange paint.

9. What will most likely happen the next time one of Nate's friends loses something? (RL.2.10)

- A They will be able to solve it themselves.
- B They will call Nate right away.
- C They will just eat pancakes.
- D They will just assume Harry did it.

Answer Key

