

Common Core Aligned Comprehension Assessment

The Bear Ate Your Sandwich CCSS Assessment

Name: _____
Score: / 9

Directions:

Use what you know about The Bear Ate Your Sandwich to answer each of the following questions.

1. Why does the dog tell the story about the bear eating the sandwich?

- A He tells the story to be funny and get attention.
- B He tells the story so he won't get in trouble for eating the sandwich.
- C He tells the story because it was his sandwich and he is sad.
- D The dog doesn't tell the story.

2. Why does the bear check to make sure no one is looking before eating the sandwich?

- A Because he does not want to get caught since he knows he shouldn't eat the sandwich without asking.
- B Because he is embarrassed about being new to the city and doesn't want people to see him.
- C He doesn't check to make sure no one is watching.
- D Because he is nervous and worried about everything in the new city.

3. How does the bear solve his problem of being hungry in the new city?

- A He eats garbage.
- B He eats fish from the water.
- C He goes back home to the forest for food.
- D He eats someone's sandwich.

4. Which is an example of alliteration?

- A The bear loved it.
- B leafy green smells
- C sniff, snuffle, slobber,
- D None of the above.

CCSS Assessment

Common Core Assessment:
One question for each Reading
Informational OR Reading Literature
standard (1-9)

5. What was surprising about the end of The Bear Ate Your Sandwich? (RL.2.5)

- A The dog was telling the story to his owner so he wouldn't get in trouble.
- B The bear came back to the park to say sorry.
- C The bear made sandwiches for the bears in the forest.
- D There was nothing surprising.

6. The Bear Ate Your Sandwich is written from which character's point of view? (RL.2.6)

- A The narrator
- B The dog
- C The bear
- D The girl

7. How is the city different from the forest? (RL.2.7)

- A The city and the forest are the same.
- B The city has trees. The forest does not.
- C The city has lots of tasty food for the bear. The forest does not.
- D The city has tall buildings and people. The forest does not.

8. How would The Bear Ate Your Sandwich be different if the bear told the story. (RL.2.9)

- A The bear would tell about how the dog ate the sandwich.
- B The stories would be the same.
- C The bear would tell about how he is silly.
- D The bear would tell the story with the dog.

9. Based on the ending of The Bear Ate Your Sandwich, what do you think the little girl will do next? (RL.2.10)

- A The little girl will ask the dog for the REAL story.
- B The little girl will search for the bear.
- C The little girl will laugh.
- D The little girl will cry.

Answer Key

