

Common Core Aligned Comprehension Assessment

The Hello, Goodbye Window CCSS Assessment

Name: _____

Score: / 9

Directions:

Use what you know about The Hello, Goodbye Window to answer each of the following questions.

1. Which of these details is important to understanding The Hello, Goodbye Window?

- A Nanna and Poppy have a big house.
- B Nanna and Poppy have shelves full of glass jars.
- C Nanna and Poppy have a Hello, Goodbye Window that's always there when you need it.
- D The child takes a nap at Nanna and Poppy's house.

2. What message does the author hope you understand when you read The Hello, Goodbye Window?

- A Families are always there when you need them.
- B Families are all different.
- C Family vacations are fun.
- D Going to visit your grandparents' house is boring.

3. How does the little girl feel about visiting her Nanna and Poppy?

- A The child does not like visiting them.
- B The child is scared when she visits her Nanna and Poppy.
- C The child is sad because she misses her Mommy and Daddy.
- D The child enjoys visiting her Nanna and Poppy.

4. Why is the window in the kitchen called the Hello, Goodbye Window?

- A It is called the Hello, Goodbye Window because there is a sign on it that says, "Hello" and "Goodbye".
- B It is called the Hello, Goodbye Window because it is always there when you are coming and going from Nanna and Poppy's house.
- C It is called the Hello, Goodbye Window because it is always there when you are saying "hello" and "goodbye".
- D It is called the Hello, Goodbye Window because it is always there when you are saying "hello" and "goodbye".

CCSS Assessment

5. Why is the little girl both happy and sad at the end of the story? (RL.2.5)

- A The little girl is happy because she gets to go to the store to buy a new toy. She is sad because she has to leave her grandparents.
- B She is happy because she gets to be with her parents. The little girl is sad because she has to leave Nanna and Poppy's house.
- C The little girl is happy because she got a puppy. She is sad because the puppy is naughty.
- D She is happy to be visiting her Nanna and Poppy's house. The little girl is sad because it's raining outside.

6. If the little girl was telling you this story, what would her voice sound like? (RL.2.6)

- A Sleepy and soft.
- B Loud and angry.
- C Happy and excited.
- D Sad and weepy.

7. How do the illustrations show you how the little girl feels about visiting her Nanna and Poppy? (RL.2.7)

- A The illustrations are bright, fun, and colorful, which shows that the little girl feels happy.
- B The illustrations are dull and boring, which shows that the little girl feels sad.
- C The illustrations are black and white, which shows that the little girl is lonely.
- D There are no illustrations.

8. How is The Hello, Goodbye Window different from most stories? (RL.2.9)

- A This story does not have a problem and solution.
- B This story does not have a setting.
- C This story does not have characters.
- D This story does not have an ending.

9. The Hello, Goodbye Window is from which of the following genres? (RL.2.10)

- A Fairy Tale
- B Poetry
- C Fiction
- D Nonfiction

CCSS Assessment 2nd Grade Reading Standards for Literature | BookPagez.com

Common Core Assessment:
One question for each Reading
Informational OR Reading Literature
standard (1-9)

Answer Key

