Common Core Aligned Comprehension Assessment

Directions: Directions: Use what you know about the Invisible Bay to answer each of the following questions. 1. Why does Justin thank fain and recess? As than helped him to do his math work. Belain wrote Justin thank fain and recess? Belain total Justin the like dhis shoes. Belain total Justin he like dhis shoes. Belain tead as this wormed to play with him. 2. What lesson did Brian learned by the end of the story? Belain learned to be a project within his drawing. Belain learned to be a project within his drawing. Belain learned to be brave and to falk to a new student. 3. How did blian's note office the story? Belain's note was turned into a paper airplane. A life and, what did the author meant that the similar project and the story is the author meant that the similar project and the story is the author meant that the similar project is the substance of the similar project is the similar project		Name:
Upow what you know about The Invitable Boy to answer each of the following questions. 1. Why does Justin thank Brian at recess? ② Brian thank Brian at recess? ③ Brian telepach thin to do his moth work. ⑤ Brian thank Brian and the country of the stand thank thank was kind. ⑤ Brian taked Justin the like of this shoes. ⑤ Brian telepach thin thank the moth thank was kind. ⑥ Brian telepach thin thank the moth thank was kind. ⑥ Brian telepach the like of this shoes. ⑤ Brian telepach the was the short. ⑤ Brian telepach to add and subtract. ⑥ Brian telepach to add and subtract. ⑥ Brian telepach to add and subtract. ⑥ Brian telepach to be brave and to falk to a new student. ③ All of Brian's classmates made fun of Brian's note. ⑥ Justin appreciated Brian's note and became his friend. ⑥ Brian wervarde a note. ⑤ Justin appreciated Brian's note and became his friend. ⑥ Brian wervardes and the stand of the stand that he is no longer lonely. ⑥ The author meant that Brian is a naughty student now. ⑥ The author meant that Brian is a naughty student now. ⑥ The author meant that Brian has friends and that he is no longer lonely. ⑥ The author meant that Brian is a naughty student now. ⑥ The author meant that Brian is a languagh to the stand is said which is why he feels invisible? (BL.3.5) ⑤ Brian does not leel invisible abov? (RL.3.6) ⑥ Brian is said in standard to the standard shadowhich is why he feels invisible. Ø Brian is lonely and standard shadowhich is why he feels invisible. Ø Brian is lonely and brian is black and white he is leeing lonely. When he is in color he is faring happy and included. Ø When Brian is black and white he is a lonely when he is in color he is faring happy and included. Ø When Brian is black and white he is a lone of the is invisible. Ø When Brian is black and white he is a lone of the is invisible. Ø Justin and Brian is enew students. Ø Justin is friendly and Brian is outgoing. 9. When Brian is black and white he is outgoing. 9. When Brian is friendly and Brian is third and shy around everyone	The Invisible Boy CCSS Assessment
1. Why does Justin thank Brian at recess? Brian helped him to do his math work. Brian helped him to do his work. Brian helped him to do his work. Brian helped him to do		visible Bov to answer e	ach of the fa	llowing guestions.	_
Brian helped him to do his math work. Shara words Justin a note about his funch that was kind. Brian asked if Justin wanted to play with him. Note that was kind. Shara learned to a do a project with his drawing. Shara learned to do a project with his drawing. Shara learned to be brove and to talk to a new student. All of Brian is considered the story? All of Brian is considered the story? All of Brian is considered to be brove and to talk to a new student. All of Brian is considered to be brove and be came his friend. Brian never wrote a note. All the end, what did the author mean when he wrote "Maybe, just maybe, Brian's not so invibile dieter all.? The author meant that Brian is a naughty student now.				9 -
Brian wrote Justin a note about his lunch that was kind. Brian told Justin he liked his shoes. Brian is had Justin vanted to play with him. Nhat lesson did Brian learned to do a project with his drawing. Brian learned to do a project with his drawing. Brian learned to be brave and to talk to a new student. Now did Brian's note was turned into a paper airplane. A lot Brian's classmaters made fun of Brian's note. Justin appreciated Brian's note and became his friend. Brian learned to be trave and to add some which friend. Brian is note was turned into a paper airplane. A life and, what did the author mean when he wrote "Maybe, just maybe, Brian's not so invisible after all."? The authormeant that Brian is a anaughty student now. The authormeant that Brian is a naughty student now. The authormeant that Brian is a naughty student now. The authormeant that Brian has friends and that he is no longer lanely. The authormeant that Brian has friends and that he is no longer lanely. The authormeant that Brian has friends and that he is no longer lanely. The authormeant that Brian has friends and that he is no longer lanely. The authormeant that Brian has friends and that he is no longer lanely. The authormeant that Brian has friends and that he is no longer lanely. The authormeant that Brian has friends and that he is no longer lanely. The authormeant that Brian has friends and that he is no longer lanely. The authormeant that Brian has friends and that he is not say with friends, and is sad which is why he feels invisible. Brian is lanel, and the he beginning of the story, help us to understand why he feels invisible? (R.1.3.5) Brian is the class clown at school which is why he feels invisible. Brian is gumpy, not kind to others, and is miserable which is why he feels invisible. Brian is gumpy, not kind to others, and is miserable which is why he feels invisible. Brian is gumpy, not kind to others, and is miserable which is why he feels invisible. Brian is gumpy, not kind to others, and is mi					Comm
Brian local Justin the liked his shoes. Brian asked if Justin wanted to play with him. 2. What lesson did Brian learned to a project with his drawing. Brian learned to do a project with his drawing. Brian learned to be brave and to talk to a new student. 3. How did Brian's note affect the story? A lid Brian's note affect the story in the many student of the story in the properties of the story in the properties of the story in the author meant that Brian is a noughty student now. B The author meant that Brian is a noughty student now. B The author meant that Brian is a noughty student now. B The author meant that Brian is a noughty student now. B The author meant that Brian is a noughty student now. B The author meant that Brian is a noughty student now. B The author meant that Brian is a noughty student now. Brian Island, does not play with friends, and is sad which is why he feels invisible? CCSS Assessme CCSS Assessme CCSS Assessme CCSS Assessme CCSS Assessme Brian Island, and the story describe his feelings? (BL3.7) When stori is blaing the story in The Invisible Boy? (BL3.6) Brian Island, and which is why he feels invisible at home. Brian Island, and which is story here is in color he is hereing happy and included. Brian is black and whith he is feeling lonely. When he is in color he is heppy and included. When Brian is black and whith he is stary and mean. When he is in color he is heppy and included. When Brian is black and whith he is visible. When he is in color he is hoppy and included. When Brian is black and whith he is visible. Brian Island and by a count everyone. Justin is fernelly and Brian is third and sty around everyone. Justin and Brian ore new students. Justin does not care about people and Brian loves people. Justin is fernelly and Brian is third and sty around everyone. Justin and Brian ore new students. Justin does not care about people and Br	\simeq		t was kind.
2. What lesson did Brian learned to lad and subtract. ② It is a project with his drawing. ③ It is a project with his drawing. ⑤ It is a project with his drawing. ⑤ It is a project with his drawing. ⑤ It is a project with his drawing. ⑥ It is a project with his with his with his brown his brown his drawing with his less with his his his his drawing his brown his his project with his with his his his project with his with his his his his his his his his his hi	C Brian told Justin he like	d his shoes.
Bidan learned to dad and subtract. Bidan learned to be naughtly. Bidan learned to be naughtly. Bidan learned to be naughtly. Bidan learned to be brave and to talk to a new student. 3. How did Bidan's note was turned into a paper airplane. All of Bidan's classmates made fun of Bidan's note. Justin appreciated Bidan's note and became his friend. Bidan never wrote a nate. All the earth what did the author mean when he wrote "Maybe, just maybe, Bidan's not so invisible after all."? The author meant that Bidan has a naughty student now. The author meant that Bidan has friends and that he is no longer lonely. The author meant that Bidan has friends and that he is no longer lonely. CCSS Assessme CCSS Assessme CCSS Assessme CCSS Assessme CCSS Assessme CCSS Assessme A narrator (3rd person) Justin (1st person) Nothan (1st pers	D Brian asked if Justin wa	nted to play with him.			Intormatio
Bisian learned to do a project with his drawing. Bisian learned to be brave and to talk to a new student. Show did itain's note effect the story? Bisian's note was turned into a paper airplane. All of Brian's classmates made fun of Brian's note. Justin appreciated Brian's note and became his friend. Brian never wrote a note. All the end, what did the author mean when he wrote "Maybe, just maybe, Brian's not so invisible after all."? The author meant that Brian is a naughty student now. The author meant that Brian is a naughty student now. The author meant that Brian is a naughty student now. Sha be author meant that Brian is a naughty student now. Brian is lonely, does not play with friends, and is sad which is why he feels invisible. Brian is lonely, does not play with friends, and is sad which is why he feels invisible. Brian is the class clown at school which is why he feels invisible at home. Brian is the class clown at school which is why he feels invisible at home. Brian is the class clown at school which is why he feels invisible at home. Brian is the class clown at school which is why he feels invisible at home. Brian (1st person) Justin (1st person) A narrator (3rd person) Nathan (1st person) A narrator (3rd person) Nathan (1st person) The make a feeling shoppy and included. When Brian is black and white he is a feeling lonely. When he is in color he is feeling happy and included. When Brian is black and white he is a feeling lonely. When he is in color he is happy and included. When Brian is black and white he is visible. When he is in color he is happy and included. When Brian is black and white he is visible. When he is in color he is happy and included. When Brian is black and white he is visible. When he is in color he is happy and included. Justin is friendly and Brian is outgoing. Justin is frien	2. What lesson did Brian learn by	the end of the story?
Britan learned to be naughty. Britan's note was turned into a paper airplane. All of Britan's note was turned into a paper airplane. All of Britan's classmates made fun of Britan's note. Justin appreciated Britan's note and became his friend. Britan never wrote a note. At the end, what did the author mean when he wrote "Maybe, just maybe, Britan's not so invisible after all."? The author meant that Britan has friends and that he is no longer lonely. Show do Britan's actions and feelings at the beginning of the story, help us to understand why he feels invisible? (RL.3.5) Britan is lonely, does not play with friends, and is sad which is why he feels invisible. Britan is fonely, does not play with friends, and is sad which is why he feels invisible. Britan is grampy, not kind to others, and is miserable which is why he feels invisible. Britan is grampy, not kind to others, and is miserable which is why he feels invisible. Britan is grampy, not kind to others, and is miserable which is why he feels invisible. Britan for person The author meant the class clown at school which is why he feels invisible at home. Britan does not feel invisible. Britan for person The who is telling the story in The Invisible Boy? (RL.3.4) Britan (Ist person) The author meant the feelings? (RL.3.7) When Britan is black and white he is feeling person. When Britan is black and white he is ded. When he is in color he is feeling happy and included. When Britan is black and white he is defined non. When he is in color he is happy and included. When Britan is black and white he is visible. When he is in color he is invisible. Britan and Britan are new students. Justin is friendly and Britan is timed and shy around everyone. Justin is friendly and Britan is timed and shy around everyone. Justin is friendly and Britan is timed and shy around everyone. Justin is friendly and Britan is timed and shy around everyone. Justin is friendly and Britan is britan the server of The Invisible Boy? (RL.3.10) Nonlicition Justin is friendly and Britan i	A Brian learned to add a	nd subtract.
Birlan learned to be brave and to talk to a new student. 3. How did Brian's note was turned into a paper cirplane. (a) All of Brian's note was turned into a paper cirplane. (b) Justin appreciated Brian's note and became his friend. (c) Justin appreciated Brian's note and became his friend. (d) Brian never wrote a note. 4. At the end, what did the author mean when he wrote "Maybe, just maybe, Brian's not so invisible after all." (a) The author meant that Brian has friends and that he is no longer lonely. (b) The author meant that Brian has friends and that he is no longer lonely. (c) The author meant that Brian has friends and that he is no longer lonely. (d) The author meant that Brian has friends and that he is no longer lonely. (e) The author meant that Brian has friends and that he is no longer lonely. (f) The author meant that Brian has friends and that he is no longer lonely. (e) The author meant that Brian has friends and that he is no longer lonely. (f) The author meant that Brian has friends and feelings at the beginning of the story, help us to understand why he feels invisible? (RL3.5) (f) Brian is lonely, does not play with friends, and is sad which is why he feels invisible. (e) Brian is lonely, does not play with friends, and is sad which is why he feels invisible. (e) Brian is the class clown at school which is why he feels invisible at home. (f) Brian is the class clown at school which is why he feels invisible at home. (f) Brian is lonely and brian is black and whith he is negative from Justin's feelings? (RL3.7) (f) When Brian is black and whith he is anapy and mean. When he is in color he is happy and included. (g) When Brian is black and whith he is anapy and mean. When he is in color he is happy and included. (g) When Brian is black and whith he is anapy and mean. When he is in color he is happy and included. (g) When Brian is black and whith he is anapy and mean. When he is in color he is happy and included. (g) When Brian is black and whith he is visible. When he is in color he is happy	B) Brian learned to do a p	oroject with his drawing	g.
3. How did Brian's note was turned into a paper airplane. (a) All of Brian's note was turned into a paper airplane. (b) All of Brian's classmates made fun of Brian's note. (c) Justin appreciated Brian's note and became his friend. (d) Brian never worde a note. 4. All the end, what did the author mean when he wrote "Maybe, just maybe, Brian's not so invisible after all."? (a) The author meant that Brian is a naughty student now. (b) The author meant that Brian has friends and that he is no longer lanely. (c) The author meant that Brian is a naughty student now. (d) The author meant that Brian is a naughty student now. (e) The author meant that Brian is a naughty student now. (e) The author meant that Brian is a naughty student now. (e) The author meant that Brian is a naughty student now. (e) The author meant that Brian is a naughty student now. (e) The author meant that Brian is a naughty student now. (f) The author meant that Brian is large trained in the story in the story with friends, and is sad which is why he feels invisible. (g) Brian is grumpy, not kind to others, and is miserable which is why he feels invisible. (e) Brian does not feel invisible. (f) Brian (list person) (g) Austin (1st person) (g) Nothan (1st person) (g) Nothan (1st person) (g) Nothan (1st person) (g) Nothan (1st person) (g) When Brian is black and white he is old. When he is in color he is feeling hoppy and included. (g) When Brian is black and white he is visible. When he is in color he is hoppy and included. (g) When Brian is black and white he is visible. When he is in color he is invisible. (g) Justin does not care about people and Brian is character? (RL.3.9) (o) Justin is friendly and Brian is fimid and sty around everyone. (o) Justin is friendly and Brian is in indi and sty around everyone. (o) Justin is friendly and Brian is outgoing. (o) Which of the following best describes the genre of The Invisible Boy? (RL.3.10)	C Brian learned to be no	iughty.
Brian's note was turned into a paper airplane. All of Brian's classmates made fun of Brian's note. Justin appreciated Brian's note and became his friend. Brian never wrote a note. At the end, what did he author meant when he wrote "Maybe, just maybe, Brian's not so invisible after all.? The author meant that Brian has friends and that he is no longer lonely. The author meant that Brian has friends and that he is no longer lonely. S. How do Brian's actions and feelings at the beginning of the story, help us to understand why he feels invisible? (RLJ.3.) Brian is grumpy, not kind to others, and is miserable which is why he feels invisible. Brian does not feel invisible. S. Who is telling the story in The Invisible Boy? (RLJ.3.6) Brian (1st person) A narrator (3rd person) D. Nathan (1st person) 7. How do the illustrations of Brian throughout the story describe his feelings? (RLJ.3.7) When Brian is black and white he is feeling lonely. When he is in color he is feeling happy and included. When Brian is black and white he is sugny and mean. When he is in color he is happy and included. When Brian is black and white he is visible. When he is in color he is invisible. B. How is Brian's character different from Justin's character? (RLJ.9.9) A Justin does not care about people and Brian loves people. Justin's feeldly and Brian is mid and shy around everyone. Justin's lonely and Brian are new students. Justin's lonely and Brian segment of The Invisible Boy? (RLJ.10) Nonfliction Febble February	D Brian learned to be bro	uve and to talk to a ne	w student.
All of Brian's classmates made fun of Brian's note. Justin appreciated Brian's note and became his friend. Brian neverwrote a note. 4. At the end, what did the author mean when he wrole "Maybe, just maybe, Brian's not so invisible after all."? The author meant that Brian has friends and that he is no longer lonely. 5. How do Brian's actions and feelings at the beginning of the story, help us to understand why he feels invisible? (R.L.3.5) Brian is lonely, does not play with friends, and is sad which is why he feels invisible. CCSS Assessme 5. How do Brian's actions and feelings at the beginning of the story, help us to understand why he feels invisible? (R.L.3.5) Brian is lonely, does not play with friends, and is sad which is why he feels invisible. Brian is grumpy, not kind to others, and is miserable which is why he feels invisible. Brian for the invisible at home. Brian (1st person) Justin (1st person) A narrator (3rd person) Netherous drei illustrations of Brian throughout the story describe his feelings? (R.L.3.7) When Brian is black and white he is old. When he is in color he is feeling happy and included. When Brian is black and white he is angry and mean. When he is in color he is happy and included. When Brian is black and white he is angry and mean. When he is in color he is happy and included. When Brian is black and white he is visible. When he is in color he is happy and included. When Brian is black and white he is angry and mean. When he is in color he is happy and included. Justin is fendly and Brian is timid and sty around everyone. Justin is fendly and Brian is timid and sty around everyone. Justin is lonely and Brian is outgoing.	3. How did Brian's note affect the	story?
CCSS Assessmi CCS Assessmi CCSS Assessmi CCCSS Assessmi CCCS Assessmi CCCSS Assessmi CCCSS Assessmi CCCSS Assessmi CCCSS Assessmi CCCSS Assessmi CCCSS Assessmi CCCS Assessmi CCCS Assessmi CCCS Assessmi CCCS Assessmi CCCS Assessmi CCCS Assess	(A) Brian's note was turned	l into a paper airplane
4. At the end, what did the author mean when he wrote "Maybe, just maybe, Brian's not so invisible after all."? A The author meant that Brian is a naughty student now. The author meant that Brian has friends and that he is no longer lonely. 5. How do Brian's actions and feelings at the beginning of the story, help us to understand why he feels invisible? (RL3.5) Brian is lonely, does not play with friends, and is ad which is why he feels invisible. CCSS Assessma CCSS Assessma 5. How do Brian's actions and feelings at the beginning of the story, help us to understand why he feels invisible? (RL3.5) Brian is lonely, does not play with friends, and is sad which is why he feels invisible. Brian is grumpy, not kind to others, and is miserable which is why he feels invisible. Brian the class clown at school which is why he feels invisible at home. Brian (1st person) A narrator (3rd person) 7. How do the illustrations of Brian throughout the story describe his feelings? (RL3.7) When Brian is black and white he is feeling lonely. When he is in color he is feeling happy and included. When Brian is black and white he is old. When he is in color he is happy and included. When Brian is black and white he is visible. When he is in color he is happy and included. When Brian is black and white he is visible. When he is in color he is happy and included. When Brian is black and white he is visible. When he is in color he is invisible. 8. How is Brian's character different from Justin's character? (RL3.9) A Justin does not care about people and Brian loves people. Justin and Brian are new students. Justin and Brian are new students. Justin and Brian are new students. Justin lonely and Brian is outgoing. 9. Which of the following best describes the genre of The Invisible Boy? (RL3.10) Nonliction Fable Poem	B All of Brian's classmate	s made fun of Brian's n	ote.
4. At the end, what did the author mean when he wrote "Maybe, just maybe, Brian's not so invisible after all."? A The author meant that Brian is a naughty student now. The author meant that Brian has friends and that he is no longer lonely. 5. How do Brian's actions and feelings at the beginning of the story, help us to understand why he feels invisible? (R.L.3.5) Brian is lonely, does not play with friends, and is miserable which is why he feels invisible. CCSS Assessmit 6. Who is telling the story not kind to others, and is miserable which is why he feels invisible. Brian is grumpy, not kind to others, and is miserable which is why he feels invisible. Brian is grumpy, not kind to others, and is miserable which is why he feels invisible. Brian is grumpy, not kind to others, and is miserable which is why he feels invisible. Brian is grumpy, not kind to others, and is miserable which is why he feels invisible. Brian is grumpy, not kind to others, and is miserable which is why he feels invisible. Brian is grumpy, not kind to others, and is miserable which is why he feels invisible. Who is telling the story in The Invisible Boy? (R.L.3.6) A part of grampy and included. When Brian is black and white he is feeling lonely. When he is in color he is feeling so only. When he is in color he is happy and included. When Brian is black and white he is old. When he is in color he is happy and included. When Brian is black and white he is old. When he is in color he is invisible. 8. How is Brian's character different from Justin's character? (R.L.3.9) A justin does not care about people and Brian loves people. Justin and Brian are new students. Justin and Brian are new students. Justin and Brian are new students. Justin lonely and Brian is outgoing. Which of the following best describes the genre of The Invisible Boy? (R.L.3.10) Nonliction Fable Poem	C Justin appreciated Brid	n's note and became	his friend.
invisible after all."? A The author meant that Brian is a naughty student now. B The author meant that Brian has friends and that he is no longer lonely. 5. How do Brian's actions and feelings at the beginning of the story, help us to understand why he feels invisible? (RL.3.5) Brian is Innely, does not play with friends, and is sad which is why he feels invisible. CCSS Assessme 5. How do Brian's actions and feelings at the beginning of the story, help us to understand why he feels invisible? (RL.3.5) Brian is fine class clown at school which is why he feels invisible at home. Brian does not feel invisible. 6. Who is telling the story in The Invisible Boy? (RL.3.6) A narrator (3rd person) Nathan (1st person) 7. How do the illustrations of Brian throughout the story describe his feelings? (RL.3.7) When Brian is black and white he is old. When he is in color he is feeling happy and included. When Brian is black and white he is visible. When he is in color he is happy and included. When Brian is black and white he is visible. When he is in color he is happy and included. When Brian is black and white he is visible. When he is in color he is happy and included. When Brian is black and white he is visible. When he is in color he is happy and included. When Brian is black and white he is visible. When he is in color he is invisible. 8. How is Brian's character different from Justin's character? (RL.3.9) A Justin does not care about people and Brian loves people. Justin and Brian are new students. Justin and Brian are new students. Justin is lonely and Brian is outgoing. 9. Which of the following best describes the genre of The Invisible Boy? (RL.3.10) Nonfliction Brian is necessary.	\simeq	ie.
invisible after all."? A The author meant that Brian is a naughty student now. B The author meant that Brian has friends and that he is no longer lonely. 5. How do Brian's actions and feelings at the beginning of the story, help us to understand why he reals invisible? (RL.3.5) Brian is Innely, does not play with friends, and is miserable which is why he feels invisible. CCSS Assessmi 5. How do Brian's actions and feelings at the beginning of the story, help us to understand why he feels invisible? (RL.3.5) Brian is Innely, does not play with friends, and is miserable which is why he feels invisible. Brian is Innely, does not play with friends, and is miserable which is why he feels invisible. CCSS Assessmi 6. Who is telling the story in The Invisible Boy? (RL.3.6) A Dustin (1st person) A narrator (3rd person) Nathan (1st person) 7. How do the illustrations of Brian throughout the story describe his feelings? (RL.3.7) When Brian is black and white he is old. When he is in color he is feeling happy and included. B. When Brian is black and white he is visible. When he is in color he is happy and included. When Brian is black and white he is visible. When he is in color he is invisible. B. How is Brian's character different from Justin's character? (RL.3.9) A Justin does not care about people and Brian loves people. Justin and Brian are new students. Justin and Brian are new students. Justin and Brian are new students. Justin is lonely and Brian is outgoing. 9. Which of the following best describes the genre of The Invisible Boy? (RL.3.10) Nonfiction B Fable Poem	\circ		te "Maybe, ju	ıst maybe, Brian's not so
The author meant that Brian has friends and that he is no longer lonely. 5. How do Brian's actions and feelings at the beginning of the story, help us to understand why he feels invisible? (RL.3.5) Brian is lonely, does not play with friends, and is made which is why he feels invisible. Brian is grumpy, not kind to others, and is miserable which is why he feels invisible. Brian is the class clown at school which is why he feels invisible at home. Brian does not feel invisible. 6. Who is tellling the story in The Invisible Boy? (RL.3.6) Brian (1st person) A narrator (3rd person) Nethen Brian is black and white he is feeling lonely. When he is in color he is feeling happy and included. When Brian is black and white he is old. When he is in color he is feeling happy and included. When Brian is black and white he is visible. When he is in color he is happy and included. When Brian is black and white he is visible. When he is in color he is happy and included. When Brian is black and white he is visible. When he is in color he is happy and included. When Brian is black and white he is visible. When he is in color he is invisible. B. How is Brian's character different from Justin's character? (RL.3.9) Justin does not care about people and Brian loves people. Justin and Brian are new students. Justin and Brian are new students. Justin is lonely and Brian is outgoing. 9. Which of the following best describes the genre of The Invisible Boy? (RL.3.10) Nonfiction B Fable Peem	\sim			•
The author meant the The Autho	A) The author meant tha	t Brian is a naughty stu	udent now.
The author meant that The author meant that the start of the author that the author is why he feels invisible. The author meant that The author meant that The author meant that the author that the start of the author is say, he feels invisible. The author meant that The author meant that The author meant that the author is say, he feels invisible and thought the feels invisible at home. The author meant that the author is say, he feels invisible at home. The author meant that the author is say, he feels invisible at home. The author is say, he feels invisible. The author is say, he feels invisible. The author is say, he feels invisible. The author is why he feels invisible. The au	B The authormeant that	Brian has friends and t	that he is no l	onger lonely.
Brian is lonely, does not play with friends, and is sad which is why he feels invisible. Brian is grumpy, not kind to others, and is miserable which is why he feels invisible. Brian is grumpy, not kind to others, and is miserable which is why he feels invisible. Brian is the class clown at school which is why he feels invisible at home. Brian feel invisible. 6. Who is telling the story in The Invisible Boy? (RL.3.6) A part of (1st person) A narrator (3rd person) Nathan (1st person) Nathan (1st person) When Brian is black and white he is feeling lonely. When he is in color he is feeling happy and included. When Brian is black and white he is angry and mean. When he is in color he is happy and included. When Brian is black and white he is visible. When he is in color he is happy and included. When Brian is black and white he is visible. When he is in color he is invisible. B. How is Brian's character different from Justin's character? (RL.3.9) Justin does not care about people and Brian loves people. Justin is friendly and Brian is outgoing. Justin and Brian are new students. Justin is lonely and Brian is outgoing. Justin is lonely and Brian is outgoing. Nonfliction B Fable Poem	C The authormeant tha				ne story, help us to understand
B Brian is grumpy, not kind to others, and is miserable which is why he feels invisible. © Brian is the class clown at school which is why he feels invisible at home. © Brian does not feel invisible. 6. Who is telling the story in The Invisible Boy? (RL.3.6) © Brian (1st person) © A narrator (3rd person) 7. How do the illustrations of Brian throughout the story describe his feelings? (RL.3.7) When Brian is black and white he is feeling lonely. When he is in color he is feeling happy and included. © When Brian is black and white he is old. When he is in color he is happy and included. © When Brian is black and white he is visible. When he is in color he is happy and included. © When Brian is black and white he is visible. When he is in color he is invisible. 8. How is Brian's character different from Justin's character? (RL.3.9) Ø Justin does not care about people and Brian loves people. Justin is friendly and Brian is timid and shy around everyone. © Justin and Brian are new students. © Justin is lonely and Brian is outgoing. 9. Which of the following best describes the genre of The Invisible Boy? (RL.3.10) Nonfiction B Fable © Poem	D The authormeant tha
© Brian is the class clown at school which is why he feels invisible at home. © Brian does not feel invisible. 6. Who is telling the story in The Invisible Boy? (RL.3.6) A Brian (1st person) B Justin (1st person) 7. How do the illustrations of Brian throughout the story describe his feelings? (RL.3.7) When Brian is black and white he is feeling lonely. When he is in color he is feeling happy and included. B When Brian is black and white he is old. When he is in color he is happy and included. When Brian is black and white he is angry and mean. When he is in color he is happy and included. When Brian is black and white he is visible. When he is in color he is happy and included. When Brian is black and white he is visible. When he is in color he is invisible. 8. How is Brian's character different from Justin's character? (RL.3.9) Justin does not care about people and Brian loves people. Justin is friendly and Brian is timid and shy around everyone. C Justin and Brian are new students. D Justin is lonely and Brian is outgoing. 9. Which of the following best describes the genre of The Invisible Boy? (RL.3.10) Nonfiction B Fable C Poem		$\overline{}$
Design to be story in The Invisible Boy? (RL.3.6) 6. Who is telling the story in The Invisible Boy? (RL.3.6) A Brian (1st person) Dustin (1st person) A narrator (3rd person) Nathan (1st person) T. How do the illustrations of Brian throughout the story describe his feelings? (RL.3.7) When Brian is black and white he is feeling lonely. When he is in color he is feeling happy and included. When Brian is black and white he is old. When he is in color he is young. When Brian is black and white he is angry and mean. When he is in color he is happy and included. When Brian is black and white he is visible. When he is in color he is invisible. B. How is Brian's character different from Justin's character? (RL.3.9) A Justin does not care about people and Brian loves people. Justin is friendly and Brian is timid and shy around everyone. Justin and Brian are new students. Justin is lonely and Brian is outgoing. P. Which of the following best describes the genre of The Invisible Boy? (RL.3.10) Nonfiction Fable Poem	CCSS Assessme	\simeq
6. Who is telling the story in The Invisible Boy? (RL.3.6) A Brian (1st person) Justin (1st person) A narrator (3rd person) Nathan (1st person) Nathan (1st person) Nathan (1st person) How do the illustrations of Brian throughout the story describe his feelings? (RL.3.7) When Brian is black and white he is feeling lonely. When he is in color he is feeling happy and included. When Brian is black and white he is old. When he is in color he is happy and included. When Brian is black and white he is angry and mean. When he is in color he is happy and included. When Brian is black and white he is visible. When he is in color he is invisible. How is Brian's character different from Justin's character? (RL.3.9) Justin does not care about people and Brian loves people. Justin is friendly and Brian is timid and shy around everyone. Justin is lonely and Brian is outgoing. Justin is lonely and Brian is outgoing. Nonfiction Robbe Poem		\simeq			eels invisible at home.
A Brian (1st person) B Justin (1st person) A narrator (3rd person) 7. How do the illustrations of Brian throughout the story describe his feelings? (RL.3.7) When Brian is black and white he is feeling lonely. When he is in color he is feeling happy and included. B When Brian is black and white he is old. When he is in color he is happy and included. D When Brian is black and white he is angry and mean. When he is in color he is happy and included. D When Brian is black and white he is visible. When he is in color he is invisible. 8. How is Brian's character different from Justin's character? (RL.3.9) A Justin does not care about people and Brian loves people. Justin is friendly and Brian is timid and shy around everyone. C Justin and Brian are new students. D Justin is lonely and Brian is outgoing. 9. Which of the following best describes the genre of The Invisible Boy? (RL.3.10) A Nonfiction B Fable C Poem		\circ
B Justin (1st person) A narrator (3rd person) D Nathan (1st person) 7. How do the illustrations of Brian throughout the story describe his feelings? (RL.3.7) When Brian is black and white he is feeling lonely. When he is in color he is feeling happy and included. B When Brian is black and white he is old. When he is in color he is young. C When Brian is black and white he is angry and mean. When he is in color he is happy and included. D When Brian is black and white he is visible. When he is in color he is invisible. 8. How is Brian's character different from Justin's character? (RL.3.9) A Justin does not care about people and Brian loves people. Justin is friendly and Brian is timid and shy around everyone. C Justin and Brian are new students. D Justin is lonely and Brian is outgoing. 9. Which of the following best describes the genre of The Invisible Boy? (RL.3.10) A Nonfiction B Fable C Poem			-	visible Boy? (RL.3.6)
A narrator (3rd person) D Nathan (1st person) 7. How do the illustrations of Brian throughout the story describe his feelings? (RL.3.7) When Brian is black and white he is feeling lonely. When he is in color he is feeling happy and included. B When Brian is black and white he is old. When he is in color he is young. C When Brian is black and white he is angry and mean. When he is in color he is happy and included. D When Brian is black and white he is visible. When he is in color he is invisible. 8. How is Brian's character different from Justin's character? (RL.3.9) A Justin does not care about people and Brian loves people. Justin is friendly and Brian is timid and shy around everyone. C Justin and Brian are new students. D Justin is lonely and Brian is outgoing. 9. Which of the following best describes the genre of The Invisible Boy? (RL.3.10) A Nonfiction B Fable C Poem		\simeq
 Nathan (1st person) 7. How do the illustrations of Brian throughout the story describe his feelings? (RL.3.7) When Brian is black and white he is feeling lonely. When he is in color he is feeling happy and included. B When Brian is black and white he is old. When he is in color he is young. C When Brian is black and white he is angry and mean. When he is in color he is happy and included. D When Brian is black and white he is visible. When he is in color he is invisible. 8. How is Brian's character different from Justin's character? (RL.3.9) A Justin does not care about people and Brian loves people. Justin is friendly and Brian is timid and shy around everyone. C Justin and Brian are new students. D Justin is lonely and Brian is outgoing. 9. Which of the following best describes the genre of The Invisible Boy? (RL.3.10) A Nonfiction B Fable C Poem 		B Justin (1st p	person)
7. How do the illustrations of Brian throughout the story describe his feelings? (RL.3.7) When Brian is black and white he is feeling lonely. When he is in color he is feeling happy and included. B When Brian is black and white he is old. When he is in color he is young. C When Brian is black and white he is angry and mean. When he is in color he is happy and included. D When Brian is black and white he is visible. When he is in color he is invisible. 8. How is Brian's character different from Justin's character? (RL.3.9) A Justin does not care about people and Brian loves people. Justin is friendly and Brian is timid and shy around everyone. C Justin and Brian are new students. D Justin is lonely and Brian is outgoing. 9. Which of the following best describes the genre of The Invisible Boy? (RL.3.10) A Nonfiction B Fable C Poem		A narrator	(3rd person)
When Brian is black and white he is feeling lonely. When he is in color he is feeling happy and included. 3 When Brian is black and white he is old. When he is in color he is young. C When Brian is black and white he is angry and mean. When he is in color he is happy and included. D When Brian is black and white he is visible. When he is in color he is invisible. 8. How is Brian's character different from Justin's character? (RL.3.9) A Justin does not care about people and Brian loves people. Justin is friendly and Brian is timid and shy around everyone. C Justin and Brian are new students. D Justin is lonely and Brian is outgoing. 9. Which of the following best describes the genre of The Invisible Boy? (RL.3.10) A Nonfiction B Fable C Poem		(D) Nathan (1s	st person) is feeling happy and included. B When Brian is black and white he is old. When he is in color he is young. C When Brian is black and white he is angry and mean. When he is in color he is happy and included. D When Brian is black and white he is visible. When he is in color he is invisible. 8. How is Brian's character different from Justin's character? (RL.3.9) A Justin does not care about people and Brian loves people. Justin is friendly and Brian is timid and shy around everyone. C Justin and Brian are new students. D Justin is lonely and Brian is outgoing. 9. Which of the following best describes the genre of The Invisible Boy? (RL.3.10) A Nonfiction B Fable C Poem					- ' '
When Brian is black and white he is angry and mean. When he is in color he is happy and included. D When Brian is black and white he is visible. When he is in color he is invisible. 8. How is Brian's character different from Justin's character? (RL.3.9) A Justin does not care about people and Brian loves people. Justin is friendly and Brian is timid and shy around everyone. C Justin and Brian are new students. D Justin is lonely and Brian is outgoing. 9. Which of the following best describes the genre of The Invisible Boy? (RL.3.10) A Nonfiction B Fable C Poem					THE STILL COLOL LIE happy and included. D When Brian is black and white he is visible. When he is in color he is invisible. 8. How is Brian's character different from Justin's character? (RL.3.9) A Justin does not care about people and Brian loves people. Justin is friendly and Brian is timid and shy around everyone. C Justin and Brian are new students. D Justin is lonely and Brian is outgoing. 9. Which of the following best describes the genre of The Invisible Boy? (RL.3.10) A Nonfiction B Fable C Poem		B When Briar	n is black and	d white he is old. When he	is in color he is young.
D When Brian is black and white he is visible. When he is in color he is invisible. 8. How is Brian's character different from Justin's character? (RL.3.9) A Justin does not care about people and Brian loves people. Justin is friendly and Brian is timid and shy around everyone. C Justin and Brian are new students. D Justin is lonely and Brian is outgoing. 9. Which of the following best describes the genre of The Invisible Boy? (RL.3.10) A Nonfiction B Fable C Poem				d white he is angry and me	an. When he is in color he is
A Justin does not care about people and Brian loves people. Justin is friendly and Brian is timid and shy around everyone. C Justin and Brian are new students. D Justin is lonely and Brian is outgoing. 9. Which of the following best describes the genre of The Invisible Boy? (RL.3.10) A Nonfiction B Fable C Poem				d white he is visible. Whe	n he is in color he is invisible.
Justin is friendly and Brian is timid and shy around everyone. C Justin and Brian are new students. D Justin is lonely and Brian is outgoing. 9. Which of the following best describes the genre of The Invisible Boy? (RL.3.10) A Nonfiction B Fable C Poem		8. How is Brian's cho	aracter differ	ent from Justin's characte	r? (RL.3.9)
 D Justin and Brian are new students. D Justin is lonely and Brian is outgoing. 9. Which of the following best describes the genre of The Invisible Boy? (RL.3.10) A Nonfiction B Fable C Poem 		A Justin does	s not care al	oout people and Brian lov	res people.
D Justin is lonely and Brian is outgoing. 9. Which of the following best describes the genre of The Invisible Boy? (RL.3.10) A Nonfiction B Fable C Poem		Justin is frie	endly and Brid	an is timid and shy around	everyone.
Justin is lonely and Brian is outgoing. 9. Which of the following best describes the genre of The Invisible Boy? (RL.3.10) A Nonfiction B Fable C Poem			,	•
9. Which of the following best describes the genre of The Invisible Boy? (RL.3.10) A Nonfiction B Fable C Poem		\simeq
A Nonfiction B Fable C Poem		\circ	•		visible Bov? (RL.3.10)
B Fable C Poem					22,7 (1.2.2.7.7)
Poem		\simeq
		\simeq
FICTION
COCC Assessment and County of County		Fiction

Common Core Assessment: One question for each Reading Informational OR Reading Literature standard (1-9)

Answer Key