Common Core Aligned Comprehension Assessment

Directions: Ilise what you know about Who Was Wall Disney? In answer acid of the following questions. Which of these quotes from the level BEST supports to conclusion that Wall Disney are creditive? Will and Litter were parents to two staughtiess. Will and Litter were parents to two staughtiess. Will had the like like to add sound to carbons and to create the first ful length crimenot off this. Will be a sentence explaining what Who Was Wall Disney? was mostly all about. Sequence the following hoate animation steps Disney and his employees used according to the text. The arid digs. the papers in order very last. The criad digs. the papers in order very last. The criad digs. the papers in order very last. The criad digs. the papers in order very last. The criad digs. the papers in order very last. The criad digs. the papers in order very last. Who Was Wall Disney? CCSS Advantaged The condition of	Name:	Who Was Walt Disney? CCSS Assessment
Which of these quotes from the fext BEST supports to conclusion that Wall Disney var creative? With and tall tain were parents to two daughters. With and the idea to add sound to contoons and to create the first full conglibrationated that the conglibrationated that Chaptin was a formous early actor who was a big influence on bisney's life. The outhor begins Chapter & with this sentence: "Violat Disney was oliving locking for the near big indoor." List of least the examples from the text that support this statement. Answers will vary. Somple answers include: We learn through this article that Chaptin was a formous early actor who was a big influence on bisney's life. The outhor begins Chapter & with this sentence: "Violat Disney was oliving locking for the near big indoor." List of least two examples from the text that support this statement. Answers will vary. Somple answers include: 1) Wall had the idea to start in own TV show, Mickey Mouse Club. If you were writing a summony of Well Disney's life, what details from this text probably lactive out? fill in the blanks to complete your answer. I would definitely include. Information about the creation of Disney. I would definitely include. Information about the creation of Disney. I would definitely includ
Disection: Disection: Disection: Wide a sentence explaining what Who Was Walf Disney? was mostly all about. Sequence the following basic animation steps Disney and his employees used according to the text. The artiful far the papers in order very fast, the ordist chooses a character to draw. The artiful far papers in order very fast, the ordist chooses a character to draw. The artiful far papers in order very fast, the ordist chooses a character to draw. The artiful far the papers in order very fast, the ordist chooses a character to draw. The artiful far the papers in order very fast, the ordist chooses a character to draw. The artiful far the papers in order very fast, the ordist chooses a character to draw. Disection: Disection: CCCS Assessment Disection: CCCS Assessment Disection: Disection: Who Was Walf Disney? CCCS Assessment CCCS Assessment Disection: Who was the secondary ordicle and illustration about Charlie Chaplin help us understand more about Disneys illie and work? Assessment in the following questions. How does the secondary ordicle and illustration about Charlie Chaplin help us understand more about Disneys illie and work? Assessment in the ordinary ordicle and illustration about Charlie Chaplin help us understand more about Disneys illie and work? Assessment in the ordinary ordicle and illustration about Charlie Chaplin help us understand more about Disneys illie and work? Assessment in the ordinary ordicle and illustration about Charlie Chaplin help us understand more about Disneys illie and work? Assessment in the ordinary		•
With and Roy's employees went on strike because they had out wages. With had the idea to add sound to carbons and to crade the first ful tength and microbial film. With lead the idea to add sound to carbons and to crade the first ful tength and microbial film. Sequence the following basic animalian steps Disney and his employees used according to the text. The artist filps the pages in order very fast. The artist filps the pages in order very fast. The artist filps the pages in order very fast. The artist flow. The characte CCSS Assessment CCSS Assessment CCSS Assessment Directions: Use what you know about Who Was Walt Disney? To answer each of the following questions. How does the secondary article and illustration about Charrite Chaplin help us understand more about Disney's life. The author begins Chapter 8 with this sentence: "Walt Disney's use a famous early actror who was a big influence on Disney's life. Answers will vary. Sample answers include: We learn through this article that Chaplin was a famous early actror who was a big influence on Disney's life. Answers will vary. Sample answers include: 1) Walt had the idea to add sound to carriances. 2) Walt had the idea to add sound to carriances. 2) Walt had the idea to add sound to carriances. 2) Walt had the idea to add sound to carriances. 2) Walt had the idea to add sound to carriances. 2) Walt had the idea to enter this own Try show, Mickey Mouse Club. If you were writing a summary of Walt Disney's life, whold details from this text would be very important to include in your summary? What details could you probably leave outinformation about the carriance of Disney		from the text BEST supports to conclusion that Walt	Com	mon Core Assessment:
With had the idea to add sound to cortoins and to create the first full engine aminoted thin. With lead fiving in the small fown of Marceline when he was a boy. Write a sentence explaining what Who Was Walf Disney? was mostly all about. Sequence the following basic animation steps Disney and his employees used according to the lext. The artist of chooses a character to draw. The artist chooses a character to draw. The character Arower Key Who Was Walf Disney? CCSS Assessment Directions: Use what you know about Who Was Walf Disney? To answer each of the following a questions. Is what you know about Disney's life and work? Answers will vary. Sample answers include: We learn through this arricle that Chaplin was a famous early actor who was a big influence on Disney's life as a famous early actor who was a big influence on Disney's life and work? The author begins Chapter 8 with this sentence: "World Disney was always looking for the next big idea." List at least two examples from the text that support this statement. Answers will vary. Sample answers include: 1) Walf had the idea to add sound to controls. 2) Walf had the idea to add sound to controls. (Is at least two examples from the text that support this statement. Answers will vary. Sample answers include: 1) Walf had the idea to add sound to controls. 2) Walf had the idea to add sound to controls. It would definitely include in your summany? Whot details from this text would be very important to include in your summany? Whot details could your probably leave out? Fill in the blanks to complete your answer. I would definitely include. Information about the creation of Disney lead and Mickey Mouse. I could probably leave out _ The stery about him buying a dag	A Walt and Lillian we	re parents to two daughters.	1
Sequence the following basic animation steps Disney and his employees used according to the text. The crist flot the papers in order very fast. The artist phoses a character to draw. The crist flot the papers in order very fast. The crist flot the papers in order very fast. The crist flot the papers in order very fast. The crist flot the papers in order very fast. The crist flot the papers in order very fast. The crist flot the papers in order very fast. The crist flot the papers in order very fast. The character CCSS Assessment Directions: Use what you know about Who Was Walt Disney? To answer each of the following questions: Now does the secondary article and illustration about Charlie Chaplin help us understand more about Disney's life and work? Asserts will very. Sample consens include: We learn through this criticit that fought was a famous early actor who was a big influence on bisney's life. The author begins Chapter 8 with this sentence: "Walt Disney was always looking for the ned big idea." Us at least two examples from the text that support this statement. Asserts will very. Sample consens include: 1) Wah'th Add the idea to a data and off to cortoons. 2) Walt had the idea to start his own TV show, Mickey Mouse Club. If you were writing a summary of Walt Disney's life, what defails from this text would be very important to include in your summary? What defails from this text would be very important to include in your summary? What defails from this text would be very important to include in your summary? What defails from this text would be very important to include in your summary? What defails from this text would be very important to include in your summary? What defails from this text would be very important to include in your summary? What defails from this text would be very important to include in your summary? What defails from this text would be very important to include in your summary? What defails from this text would be very important to include in your summary? What defails from t			Information	•
Write a sentence explaining what Who Was Walt Disney? was mostly all about. Sequence the following basic animation steps Disney and his employees used according to the levil. The crist flips the papers in order very fast. The artist placeses a character to draw. The crist flips the papers in order very fast. The crist flips the papers in order very fast. The crist draws pieces of pag The character CCSS Assessment Directions: Use which you know about Who Was Walt Disney? CCSS Assessment CCSS Assessment Directions: Use which you know about Who Was Walt Disney? I answer each of the following questions. Now does the secondary article and litustration about Charite Chaplin help us understand more about Disney's life and work? Answers will very. Scaple, answers include: We team through this article that Chaplin was a famous early actor who was a big influence on Disney's life. The author begins Chapter 8 with this sentence: "Worl Disney was always looking for the next big idea." List at least two examples from the text that support this statement. Answers will very. Scaple, answers include: 1) Walth had the idea to add sound the certopes. 2) Walt had the idea to start his own TV show, Mickey Mouse Club. If you were writing a summary of Walt Disney's life, what details from this text would be very important to include in your summary? What details from this text would be very important to include in your summary? What details from this text would be very important to include in your summary? What details from this text would be very important to include in your summary? What details from this text would be very important to include in your summary? What details from this text would be very important to include in your summary? What details from this text would be very important to include in your summary? What details from this text would entitle junction. I would definitely include. Information about the creation of Disney. Loud probably leave out _ the story about him buying a deg_	© Walt had the idea to length animated file	o add sound to cartoons and to create the first full n.		standard (1-9)
Sequence the following basic animation steps Disney and his employees used according to the text. The artist flips the papers in order verytast. The artist floroses a character to draw. The artist character of the following questions. How does the secondary affice and illustration about Chartie Chaplin help us understand more about Disney's life and work? Answers will vary. Sample answers include: We learn through this article that Chaplin was a famous early actor who was a big influence on Disney's life. The author begins Chapter 8 with this sentence: "Walt Disney was always looking for the next big idea." List at least two examples from the fext find support his statement. Answers will vary. Sample answers include: 1) Worth had the idea to start his own TV show, Mickey Mouse Club. If you were writing a summary of Walt Disney's life, what details from this text would be very important to include in your summary? What details could you probabily leave out? Fill in the Disnis to complete your answer. I would definitely include. Information about the creation of Disney. I would definitely include. Information about the creation of Disney. I load and Mickey Mouse. I could probably leave out _the story about him buying a deg_	Walt liked living in t	he small town of Marceline when he was a boy.	—
used according to the Text. The artist litips the papers in order very fast. The artist chooses a character to draw. The artist drag pieces of part. The character Answer Key Who Was Walt Disney? CCSS Assessment Directions: Use what you know about Who Was Walt Disney? to answer each of the following questions. How does the secondary article and illustration about Charlie Chaplin help us understand more about Disney's life and work? Answers will vary. Sample answers include: We learn through this article that Chaplin was a famous early actor who was a big influence on Disney's life. The author begins Chapter 8 with this sentence: ""Walf Disney was always Jooking for the next big idea." List at least two examples from the text that support this statement. Answers will vary. Sample answers include: 1) Walt had the idea to add sound to carrbons. 2) Walt had the idea to start his own TV show, Mickey Mouse Club. If you were writing a summary of Walt Disney's life, what details from this text would be very important to include in your summary? What details could you probably leave out T fill in the blanks to complete your answer. I would definitely includeinformation about the creation of Disneyland and Mickey Mouse. I could probably leave outthe_story_about.him_buying_a_dog	While d senience expi
The artist drapieces of par The characte Answerkey Who Was Walt Disney? CCSS Assessment CCSS Assessment Directions: Use what you know about Who Was Walt Disney? to answer each of the following questions. How does the secondary article and illustration about Charlie Chaplin help us understand more about Disney's life and work? Answers will vary. Sample answers include: We learn through this article that Chaplin was a famous early actor who was a big influence on Disney's life. The author begins Chapter 8 with this sentence: "Walt Disney was always looking for the next big idea." List at least two examples from the text that support this statement. Answers will vary. Sample answers include: 1) Walt had the idea to add sound to cartoons. 2) Walt had the idea to add sound to cartoons. 2) Walt had the idea to start his own TV show, Mickey Mouse Club. If you were writing a summary of Walt Disney's life, what details from this text would be very important to include in your summary? What details could you probably leave out? Fill in the blanks to complete your canswer. I would definitely includeinformation about the creation of Disney	used according to th	e text.
The characte CCSS Assessment Directions: Use what you know about Who Was Walf Disney? to answer each of the following questions. How does the secondary article and illustration about Charlie Chaplin help us understand more about Disney's life and work? Answers will vary. Sample answers include: We learn through this article that Chaplin was a famous early actor who was a big influence on Disney's life. The author begins Chapter 8 with this sentence: "Walf Disney was always looking for the next big idea." List at least two examples from the text that support this statement. Answers will vary. Sample answers include: 1) Walt had the idea to add sound to cartoons. 2) Walt had the idea to start his own TV show, Mickey Mouse Club. If you were writing a summary of Walt Disney's life, what details from this text would be very important to include in your summary? What details could you probably leave out? Fill in the blanks to complete your answer. I would definitely includeinformation about the creation of Disney CCSS Assessment CCSS Assessment Directions: Use what you know about Who Was Walt Disney? to answer each of the following questions. How does the secondary article and illustration about Charlie Chaplin help us understand more about Disney's life and work? Answers will vary. Sample answers include: We learn through this article that Chaplin was a famous early actor who was a big influence on Disney's life. The author begins Chapter 8 with this sentence: "Walt Disney was always looking for the next big idea." List at least two examples from the text that support this statement. Answers will vary. Sample answers include: 1) Walt had the idea to add sound to cartoons. 2) Walt had the idea to start his own TV show, Mickey Mouse Club. If you were writing a summary of Walt Disney's life, what details from this text would be very important to include in your summary? What details could you probably leave out? Fill in the blanks to complete your answer. I would definitely includeinformation about the creation of Disney land and Mickey Mouse. I could probably leave outthe story_about him_buying_a_dog
Directions: Use what you know about Who Was Walt Disney? to answer each of the following questions. How does the secondary article and illustration about Charlie Chaplin help us understand more about Disney's life and work? Answers will vary. Sample answers include: We learn through this article that Chaplin was a famous early actor who was a big influence on Disney's life. The author begins Chapter 8 with this sentence: "Walt Disney was always looking for the next big idea." List at least two examples from the text that support this statement. Answers will vary. Sample answers include: 1) Walt had the idea to add sound to cartoons. 2) Walt had the idea to start his own TV show, Mickey Mouse Club. If you were writing a summary of Walt Disney's life, what details from this text would be very important to include in your summary? What details could you probably leave out? Fill in the blanks to complete your answer. I would definitely includeinformation about the creation of Disney	The charac	te Answer Key
In author begins Chapter 8 with this sentence: "Walt Disney was always looking for the next big idea." List at least two examples from the text that support this statement. Answers will vary. Sample answers include: 1) Walt had the idea to add sound to cartoons. 2) Walt had the idea to start his own TV show, Mickey Mouse Club. If you were writing a summary of Walt Disney's life, what details from this text would be very important to include in your summary? What details could you probably leave out? Fill in the blanks to complete your answer. I would definitely include information about the creation of Disney-land and Mickey Mouse. I could probably leave out the story about him buying a dog	CCSS Assessme	Directions: Use what you know about Who Was V	Valt Disney? to answer this article that Chaplin was a famous early actor who was a big influence on Disney's life. RI.4.7			ut Charlie Chaplin help us
The author begins Chapter 8 with this sentence: "Walt Disney was always looking for the next big idea." List at least two examples from the text that support this statement. Answers will vary. Sample answers include: 1) Walt had the idea to add sound to cartoons. 2) Walt had the idea to start his own TV show, Mickey Mouse Club. R1.4.8 If you were writing a summary of Walt Disney's life, what details from this text would be very important to include in your summary? What details could you probably leave out? Fill in the blanks to complete your answer. I would definitely includeinformation about the creation of Disneyland and Mickey Mouse. I could probably leave outthe story about him buying a dog		this article that Chaplin was a famous early act
"Walt Disney was always looking for the next big idea." List at least two examples from the text that support this statement. Answers will vary. Sample answers include: 1) Walt had the idea to add sound to cartoons. 2) Walt had the idea to start his own TV show, Mickey Mouse Club. R14.8 If you were writing a summary of Walt Disney's life, what details from this text would be very important to include in your summary? What details could you probably leave out? Fill in the blanks to complete your answer. I would definitely includeinformation about the creation of Disneyland and Mickey Mouse. I could probably leave outthe story about him buying a dog		"Walt Disney was always looking for the next big idea."		Answer Key Answers will vary. Sample answers include: 1) Walt had the idea to add sound to cartoons. 2) Walt had the idea to start his own TV show, Mickey Mouse Club. RI.4.8 If you were writing a summary of Walt Disney's life, what details from this text would be very important to include in your summary? What details could you probably leave out? Fill in the blanks to complete your answer. I would definitely includeinformation about the creation of Disneyland and Mickey Mouse. I could probably leave outthe story about him buying a dog
If you were writing a summary of Walt Disney's life, what details from this text would be very important to include in your summary? What details could you probably leave out? Fill in the blanks to complete your answer. I would definitely includeinformation about the creation of Disneyland and Mickey Mouse. I could probably leave outthe story about him buying a dog		Answers will vary. Sample answers include: 1) Walt had the idea to add sound to cartoons	, Mickey Mouse Club.
land and Mickey Mouse. I could probably leave out the story about him buying a dog		would be very important to include in your summary	hat details from this text? What details could you
I could probably leave out the story about him buying a dog		'	eation of Disney-

		for his wife.	RI.4.9	