My Reading Goal for December

Reading Challenge | ©BookPagez.com

Read a book...

to the tune of "Jingle Bells"	on the last day of the year	with a five-word title	with a gold or silver cover	that is a fantasy about Winter	while eating your favorite Holiday treat	after brushing your teeth	in a whisper voice	while wearing something blue on a Friday night	written by someone named Jon	about your favorite December Holiday	written in the past year	that takes place somewhere snowy with black and white illustrations	with your favorite color on the cover	as fast as you can	on your way to a Holiday party	while standing on one foot

Color in each reading challenge after you finish reading the book.
