My Reading Goal for FEBRUARY

Reading Challenge | ©BookPagez.com

Read a book...

that takes place in another country	to someone you love	about best friends	with a pink cover	that teaches you something new barefoot	written by someone named Leo	about Valentine's Day	with a six-syllable title	about a famous African American with animals on the cover	to a new friend	while your mom or dad cooks dinner	instead of watching TV	that was written before you were born
while eating a Valentine's treat	about someone brave	one time fast and one time slow	before the sun comes up	because you can

Color in each reading challenge after you finish reading the book.
