Answers will vary. Sample answers include: Hershel finally beat the goblins! As the goblin lit the last candle, the synagogue turned into a beautiful place. The synagogue walls turned gold and were adorned with gorgeous artwork. From outside, you could hear the villagers cheering, singing, and rejoicing to finally have their Hanukkah back! The village was lit with menorahs in every window. Hershel was beaming with a smile as big as the sun because he outwitted the goblins! Speaking of the goblins, they turned into a bright star in the sky to remind the villagers to celebrate Hanukkah with thanksgiving.
