

Name: _____ Date: _____

Directions:

In this story, Lilly must sit in the uncooperative chair. While she's there, she makes different posters to tell her parents how she's feeling, or what she wants.

Now it's your turn to tell your family how you feel about them. Make a poster to hang on your bedroom door or by your bed to show your family how you feel about them. Remember to be nice. There are consequences for your actions (and words)!

Attention Family:

Signed: _____