Directions:

In the book Little Bear's Visit, Grandfather and Grandmother tell many stories. Now it's your turn to tell a story to Little Bear!

Write a short story about your day. Include an action, something funny, and at least one other character. Last add a title and draw a picture to go along with your story.

The writing area consists of a large rounded rectangle with ten horizontal lines. The top nine lines are solid, and the bottom line is a dotted line, creating a designated space for a drawing below the text.
