Directions:

1. These are cause and effect cards for Six Dots: A Story of Young Louis Braille. Read the cards.
2. Cut out the cause and effect cards.
3. Mix the cards up then place them face down in front of you.
4. Turn two cards over. If the cause and effect are a match, place them on your sorting mat. If they don't match flip them back over.
5. Play until you find all the matches.
6. Hint: The cards with a square are cause cards. The cards with a circle are effect cards.

Louis Braille became blind because of an infection after an accident.

Louis was able to go to a school for the blind because the Marquise wrote a letter on his behalf.

Louis missed his home because his uniform itched, he meals were cold, and his bed was damp.

Word about Louis's six-dot system spread quickly because it was so fast and easy to use.
