

Name: _____ Date: _____

Directions:

In the book The Hallo-Wiener, Oscar has an unusual Halloween. Stack the True or False cards in a pile. Draw a card. If your card tells a true fact about Oscar's Halloween, move ahead one space. If your card is false, stay on your space.

True or False Trick or Treat

 START HERE

Directions:

Copy the set of true or false cards. Cut the cards apart. Use the cards to play True or False Tick or Treat.

True or False Cards

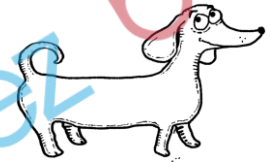

Oscar daydreamed about Halloween at Obedience School.

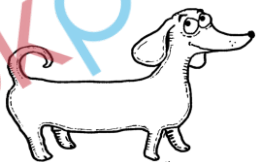

The dogs in Oscar's class wore super-hero costumes.

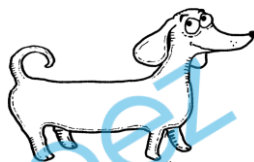

Oscar scared the monster in the graveyard away.

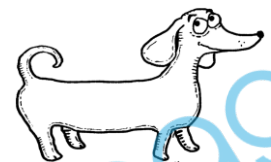

The dogs in Oscar's class made fun of Oscar's unusual shape and size.

Oscar's mother called Oscar her "little Vienna Sausage".

Oscar's Halloween costume had ketchup on it.

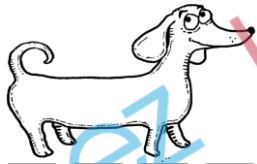

Directions:

Copy the set of true or false cards. Cut the cards apart. Use the cards to play True or False Tick or Treat.

True or False Cards

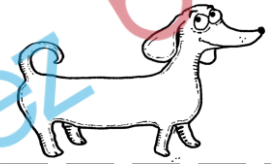

The dogs in Oscar's class hounded all the Halloween candy.

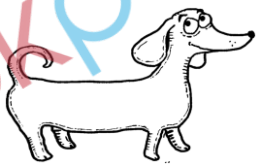

The monster in the graveyard looked like a skeleton.

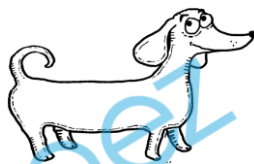

Oscar's Halloween costume made a good life raft.

Oscar told his mother that he didn't want to be a hot dog for Halloween.

Oscar's costume slowed him down when he was trick or treating.

The dogs in Oscar's class were afraid of the monster in the graveyard.

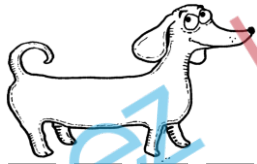

Directions:

Copy the set of true or false cards. Cut the cards apart. Use the cards to play True or False Tick or Treat.

True or False Cards

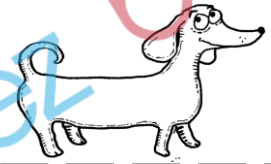

The monster in the graveyard turned out to be two ornery cats.

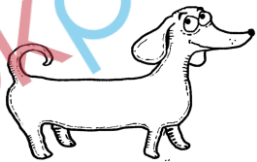

The dogs in Oscar's class shared their Halloween treats with Oscar at the end of the story.

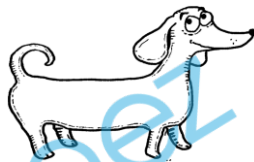

The monster in the graveyard made a howling noise.

The cats thought Oscar was a giant frankfurter.

Oscar got a new nickname at the end of the story.

Oscar's teacher scolded the dogs in his class for being bullies.

Name: _____ Date: _____

Directions:

After you have finished playing True or False Trick or Treat sort your true or false cards in the correct column below.

True

False

