

Name: _____ Date: _____

Directions: What if Nicki had not found his mitten? He might have posted a lost and found ad. Using what you know about the story, fill in the blanks in Nicki's lost and found ad below.

Lost and Found

LOST: One new mitten that looks like _____.

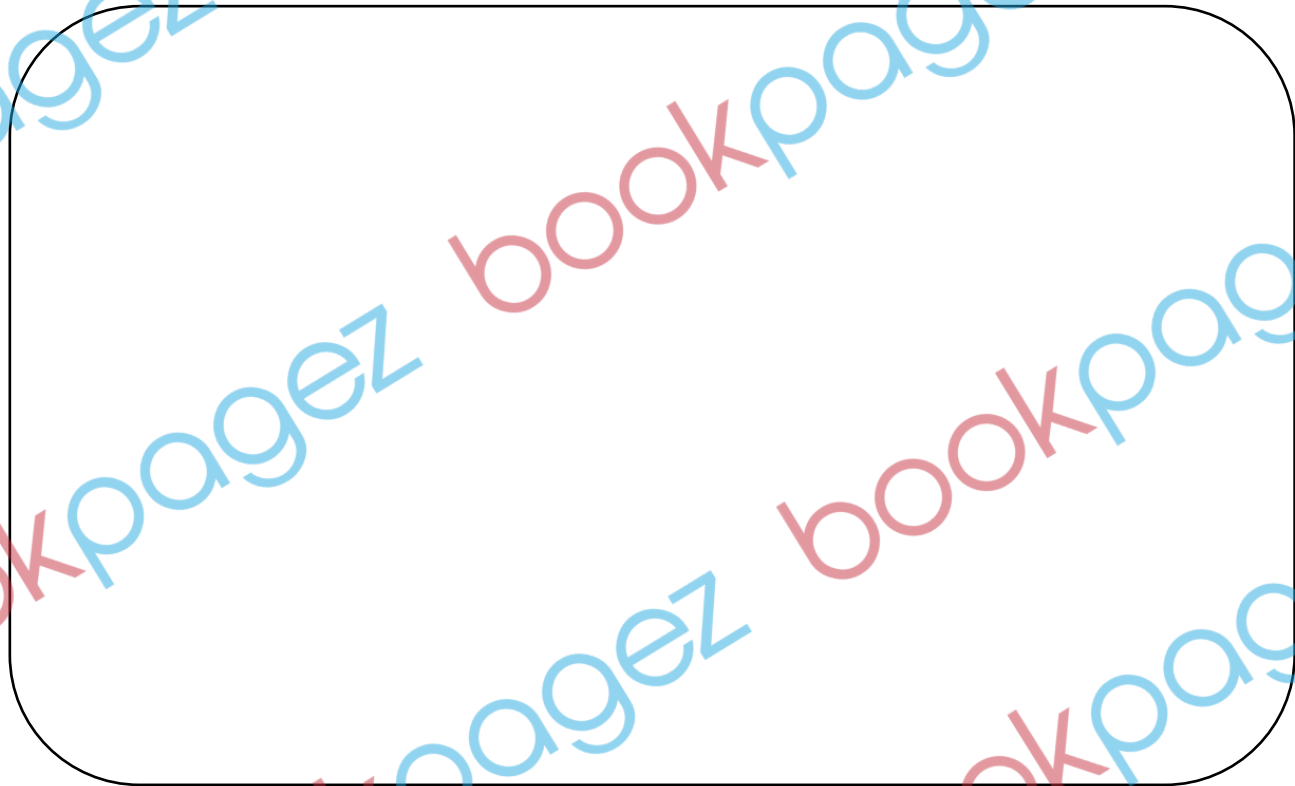

It is important to me because _____.

I last saw it _____.

If you find it, please send it to _____.

REWARD _____.

Draw a picture of the mitten.

Name: _____ Date: _____

Directions: Now pretend that you are one of the animals who found the mitten. Fill in the blanks to write a note to Nicki telling about what happened to his mitten.

Dear Nicki,

I am returning your mitten. I found it _____

_____. When I saw it, I _____

_____. Some other animals were in there, too, including: _____

_____.

But we all got out when _____

_____. I hope _____

_____.

Thank you for letting us use your mitten to keep warm.

Sincerely,

Answer Key

Directions: What if Nicki had not found his mitten? He might have posted a lost and found ad. Using what you know about the story, fill in the blanks in Nicki's lost and found ad below.

(Answers will vary.)

Lost and Found

LOST: One new mitten that looks like white snow.

It is important to me because my Baba made it for me; it matches my other one.

I last saw it when I was playing in the snow; by the old tree.

If you find it, please send it to Nicki at Baba's house.

REWARD lunchbox.

Draw a picture of the mitten.

