

Name: _____ Date: _____

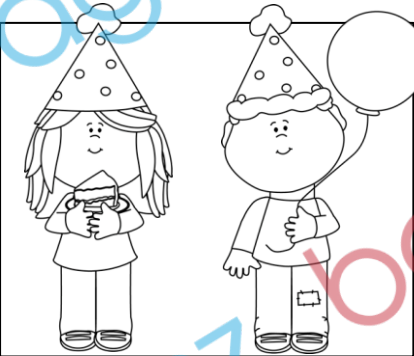

Directions:

In the book, Voices in the Park, each character has a different point of view about their day at the park. Look at each of the pictures below. Write a sentence telling what each character might be thinking.

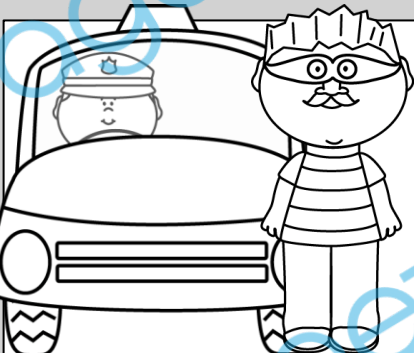

The boy is thinking _____

The crab is thinking _____

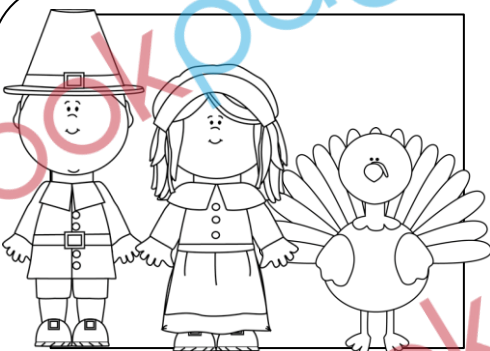

The girl is thinking _____

The boy is thinking _____

The police officer is thinking _____

The thief is thinking _____

The pilgrims are thinking _____

The turkey is thinking _____

Answers will vary.

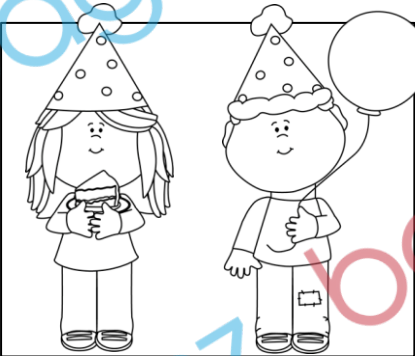

Directions:

In the book, Voices in the Park, each character has a different point of view about their day at the park. Look at each of the pictures below. Write a sentence telling what each character might be thinking.

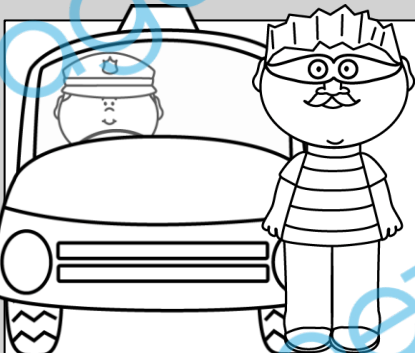

The boy is thinking about the beautiful sun.

The crab is thinking about how nice it is to be under the shaded umbrella.

The girl is thinking about her delicious cake.

The boy is thinking about his balloon floating away in the wind.

The police officer is thinking about driving safely and stopping crime.

The thief is thinking about whether or not the police officer will catch him.

The pilgrims are thinking about how delicious the turkey will taste.

The turkey is thinking that he is invited to dinner with the pilgrims.